SUBJECT NARRATIVE

On Saturday, 09/06/2025 at 1119 hours, I was dispatched to 1535 SE Maple St (Hillsboro, OR, 97123) for the report of an incomplete 911 call. Dispatch notes stated a male dragged a female out of a car then started to chase her. Additional notes stated the reporting party couldn't breathe then screaming sounds in the background. The male was described as an African American in his 40s, medium build, wearing a Seahawks jersey. The female was described as a juvenile African American, 14-15 years old, thin build, wearing a black shirt, and red and black pajama pants.

When I arrived on scene I observed the female subject, Al-Mira Davis, sitting on a curb near the entrance to the apartment complex. The male subject, Alquan Davis, was standing near his vehicle in the parking lot. Both Al-Mira and Alquan matched the description above as the subjects who were involved in the incident.

I spoke with Alquan about the incident, the following is a summary of his statements. Refer to my bodycam for further details.

Alquan began the conversation by describing some of his injuries. He described himself as "physically not being able to do shit". Alquan was extremely sweaty as we spoke to him. Al-Mira had taken his keys and she was mad because he had taken all of her stuff. Alquan then called his lawyer during our conversation. Alquan told me the argument started because he had gotten a phone call from a friend about him returning a wallet. He claimed Al-Mira knew he was about to leave. Alquan took Al-Mira's VR headset and her laptop so she was restricted from playing game accessing the internet. Al-Mira had cussed at Alquan as she was upset over him not explaining himself for taking away her stuff. He described the cussing as disrespect. Al-Mira began to stand by the door so he started to try and record. Alquan left the apartment to get away from the situation but Al-Mira ran down and started to get into the backseat of his vehicle from the drivers side. Alquan tried to push Al-Mira out of the vehicle from the opposite side while telling her to get out of his vehicle. Alquan told Al-Mira to go back upstairs so he could leave and described Al-Mira as the one causing this. Al-Mira was preventing him from being able to leave as she was standing in front of the vehicle. He continued to tell Al-Mira to go upstairs so he could leave. Alquan continued to describe him trying to leave to return a wallet to his friend that was in the vehicle. Alquan continued to try and push her out of the car and described people seeing him push her out of the car then said "not really" and described other people seeing Al-Mira running. He described not putting his hands on her to hurt her but to push her out of the vehicle. Al-Mira ended up grabbing his phone then started to run towards SE Maple St. When Alquan caught up to her he pulled her by the back of her shirt then wrapped his arms around her. Al-Mira tried to keep the phone away but Alquan was able to pull it out of her hands. Throughout the conversation Alquan continued to tell us he was currently on trial for Criminal Mistreatment 1 and he cant put his hands on her. Towards the end of the conversation he described Al-Mira as not abiding by the rules, and causing the same scene as last time.

Officer Henderson spoke to the female juvenile, Al-Mira Davis, who was sitting on the curb near the entrance to Amberwood Apartments. Below is information that was relayed to me by Officer Henderson. See his report for further information.

Officer Henderson walked to the female and asked what was going on. ?The female, who was crying and hyperventilating, said "It's my dad", and "He punched me in my arm" and "He went like this" (Describing being choked with hands), and said something to the effect of "He choked me in the corner" She then told Officer Henderson that he was slamming her into the car. She tried to tell him to get off, and when he pushed her, he told her that "No one was going to believe you".

Officer Henderson later asked Al-Mira what started the argument today. Al-Mira said that her dad was "Antagonizing" her and kept doing it. Al-Mira said that her dad was antagonizing her inside the apartment and said that he knew she would "Blow up". She said that she didn't blow up, but she told him that he knew she would, so he kept doing it. She said that she grabbed his car keys and hit him, but later told me that she "Sat" on his keys. She later described her dad wrapping her up because she was on the couch. He later said to her something to the effect of "I'm about to fucking punch you!". Al-Mira said, "Do it then", and he punched her in the arm and pulled her off the couch. Al-Mira said she had screamed "Ouch" when she was hit. Her dad then told her something to the effect of "You do this all the time, no one's going to believe you". She then said, "Dude, you just fucking punched me in the arm, why did you do that?" and he replied, "Because no one is gonna fucking believe you because your on-suicide watch".

When Al-Mira described where she was punched, she told Officer Henderson that he may not be able to see it because she wasn't sure if it was bruised and that she was "Ashy".

Officer Henderson later asked Al-Mira where she had been choked, to which she told him inside the car. She said that she was lying back and then physically described to Officer Henderson how her father choked her. Al-Mira used her hand to demonstrate this. Al-Mira said that she heard her neck crack when her dad did this, and she could barely breathe. Officer Henderson later asked Al-Mira on a pain scale from zero to ten, zero being no pain at all and ten being the worst pain she had ever felt, where she would rate the pain when she was punched. Al-Mira said "five" out of ten. Officer Henderson did not observe any injuries on Al-Mira but took pictures of where she was described to have been hit and choked.

During Officer Henderson's conversation with Al-Mira, she was extremely emotional, crying and breathing very hard.

Officer Loban spoke to witnesses, who were identified as [redacted]. Below is a summarization of what [redacted] told Officer Loban. See his report for further information.

[redacted] told Officer Loban they heard arguing, saw a Black Male described as heavy build, bald, wearing a seahawks jersey, and jeans standing outside of a brown SUV. A door was open on the SUV and saw the male swinging his arm with a fist into the car where a Black female juvenile described as wearing pajamas was sitting. Araceli saw the juvenile female get out of the car and run.

[redacted] saw the same thing and heard yelling "help me" in the parking lot. They saw the male drag the juvenile female and slam the door on her when she was yelling. The male subject pulled the juvenile females hair, dragged her, and when the juvenile female ran away, the male chased her in his car.

[redacted] partially videoed the incident. In the video Officer Loban saw what appeared to be a black male in a green/blue jersey swinging his arm in an up and down motion. The male then bends over and possibly picked up something or someone.

I read Alquan his Miranda Rights verbatim from my department issued card. He understood his rights and invoked his rights. I did not ask any further questions about this case.

Officer Henderson and I placed Alquan in handcuffs that were checked for proper fit and double locked. I placed him in the rear seat of my patrol vehicle.

I transported Alquan to Washington County Jail where he was lodged.

Action Recommended:

Case closed by arrest.

Forward to Detective Hahn.

SUPPLEMENTAL

On 09/06/2025, at around 1123 hours, I, along with Officer Mallery, Officer Schmidt, Officer Loban, and Officer Lamonica, and Officer Schmidt responded to a report of an "Incomplete 911" call, at the Amberwood Apartments, located at 1605 SE Maple St, in Hillsboro Oregon. I assisted Officer Mallery with this investigation.

I learned through Dispatch that the original reporting party to the incomplete 911 call was crying, and saying that they were on the sidewalk of Maple St. This reporting party was heard yelling "Stop" and "Please Stop" repeatedly. A male's voice was later heard saying that it was his daughter. Call notes later said that they heard a car door slam, and someone say, "I can't breathe".

I later learned that an independent witness was actively reporting this incident to Dispatch. These Call notes stated that a male had dragged a female out of a car and then started chasing her. This person described the male subject as a black male adult, approximately 40 years in age, with a medium build, wearing a Seattle Seahawks jersey. They later described the female subject to be a Black female juvenile, approximately 14-15 years old, with a thin build, wearing a black shirt and black and red "PJ" pants. Dispatch then heard a female say the male was "Choking her out".

Dispatch later advised a second independent witness who was calling in to report this incident. This witness advised Dispatch that there was a female in distress, running away from a vehicle.

Officers later arrived at the scene. I began speaking to the female juvenile who was sitting on the curb near the entrance to Amberwood Apartments. I walked to the female and asked her what was going on. The female, who was crying and hyperventilating, said "It's my dad", and "He punched me in my arm" and "He went like this" (Describing being choked with hands), and said something to the effect of "He choked me in the corner" She then told me that he was slamming her into the car.

I identified the female as Al-Mira Davis (DOB:06/23/2011), Al-Mira told me that she tried to tell her father to get off, and when he pushed her, he told her that "No one was going to believe you".

I later asked Al-Mira what started the argument today. Al-Mira said that her dad was "Antagonizing" her and kept doing it. Al-Mira said that her dad was antagonizing her inside the apartment and said that he knew she would "Blow up". She said that she didn't blow up, but she told him that he knew she would, and that he kept doing it. She initially told me that she then grabbed his car keys and hit him but later told me that she "Sat" on his keys. She later described her dad wrapping her up because she was on the couch. He later said to her something to the effect of "I'm about to fucking punch you!". Al-Mira said, "Do it then", and he punched her in the arm and pulled her off the couch. Al-Mira said she had screamed "Ouch" when she was punched in the arm. Her dad then told her something to the effect of "You do this all the time, no one's going to believe you". She then said, "Dude, you just fucking punched me in the arm, why did you do that?" and he replied, "Because no one is gonna fucking believe you because your on-suicide watch".

When Al-Mira described where she was punched, she told me that I may not be able to see it because she wasn't sure if it was bruised and that she was "Ashy".

I later asked Al-Mira where she had been choked, to which she told me inside the car. She said that she was lying back in the seat, and then she physically described and demonstrated how her father choked her. Al-Mira used both her hands to demonstrate this. Al-Mira said that she heard her neck "Crack" when her dad put his hands around her neck. Al-Mira implied that her neck cracked when her father applied pressure with his hands. I asked Al-Mira if she could breathe when she was being choked, and she replied, "Barely". I asked her how long he was choking her, and she told me, "I don't know, I don't know". When she was being choked, she told him, "Stop, you're hurting me, stop".

I later asked Al-Mira on a pain scale from zero to ten, zero being no pain at all and ten being the worst pain she had ever felt, where she would rate the pain when she was punched. Al-Mira said "Five" out of ten. She then said "Four or five" because she had felt way worse pain before. During my time speaking with Al-Mira, I did not observe any injuries to her. I took pictures where she was described to have been hit and choked and later submitted them as evidence.

During my time speaking with Al-Mira, she was extremely emotional, crying, and breathing very hard. I had to remind her to take deep breaths and to control her breathing.

Al-Mira later told me that she believed her dad had recorded the incident. She told me she believed this because he had set up his phone, and it looked like he was recording. Al-Mira said that she couldn't visibly see the phone recording because her dad's screen had a tinted cover on it. I also do not know where the phone was propped up, as Al-Mira had a hard time describing it to me. She said that he had his phone "Set up right there", but I do not know where she was talking about.

Al-Mira later said her dad keeps telling her to "Just kill herself" and to get it over with. She said that he's told her, "You're just working up the courage to kill yourself". Her father did not tell her this today, but he has said it in the past.

I later relayed the information I obtained to other officers on scene.

This concluded my involvement in this case.

SUBJECT

On September 6, 2025, at approximately 1118 hours, I responded to an Incomplete 911 call in the area of 1535 SE Maple Street, Hillsboro, OR 97123. Dispatch advised they were receiving multiple calls about a male assaulting a teenage girl who he said was his daughter. Witnesses mentioned the male has assaulted and choked the female while pulling her out of a car.

When I arrived at 1605 SE Maple Street I saw a black female juvenile sitting on the curb hysterically crying and a black male adult with a Marshawn Lynch jersey pacing back and forth in the parking lot a short distance away. I stepped out with the male with Officer Mallery. I immediately noticed he was profusely sweating and he was using a rag to wipe the sweat away. While I noted it was in the upper 60s at the time it was clear he was out of breathe and was physically tired as he continued to sweat while we spoke with him. This would corroborate what witnesses stated about him chasing her and physically assaulting her.

I got his information and identified him as Alquan Davis. While he was talking to Officer Mallery I heard him tell him that at the beginning of the incident she was not letting him leave the apartment so he tried to record but then she let him leave. He again said the same thing to someone he was talking to on the phone.

Due to these statements and my belief evidence of the incident was on the phone the phone was seized as evidence. I later entered the phone into Hillsboro Police Evidence at the West Precinct. I forwarded the evidence information to Detective Anthony Johnson for the seizure warrant he would be applying for.

Later in the call at Alquan's request I gave [redacted] Alquan's vehicle and apartment key so he could properly park the car and lock Alquan's apartment.

This ended my involvement.

SUBJECT ASSIST

On Saturday, 9/06/2025, I was working a uniformed patrol shift, 0600-1600 hours, equipped with a body worn camera (BWC). On this day, I was acting as a field training officer for Officer Griffen Stevens.

At about 1130 hours, Ofc. Stevens assigned us as cover on an incomplete 911 call at 1535 SE Maple Street. Multiple other officers had been assigned to, and had arrived on scene before us. Upon our arrival, I was asked to assist due to concerns that Alquan Davis assaulted and strangled his 14-year-old daughter, Almira Davis. I learned Alquan had a pending Criminal Mistreatment case with Almira as the victim.

I called WCSO Records, believing there would likely be a release agreement prohibiting Alquan from having contact with Almira. I was sent the release agreement, Court No 25CR18304, from WCSO Records. I reviewed the release agreement, dated 4/09/2025, and read under section 8: "CONTACT WITH VICTIM PER DHS DIRECTIVE. NO CONTACT WITH WITNESSES".

I called DHS and made a mandatory report related to today's incident, DHS screening number 3917970. I was put in touch with on-call DHS caseworker Nicole Bennett and informed her of the investigation, as well as the fact that Almira was being transported to Randall Children's Hospital. Officer Loban followed the ambulance to Randall.

It should be noted that my BWC was activated upon arrival and turned off to talk with investigative steps with other officers. Throughout my time on scene, I activated it when needed and turned it off while talking with officers and/ or DHS.

I took no further action regarding this case.

On 9/6/2025 at approximately 1134 hours, I responded to an incomplete 911 at 1535 SE Maple St, Hillsboro, OR 97123. Dispatch stated the reporting party was crying and saying "please stop." Another caller reported seeing a male dragging a female. The male was described as a black male adult, 40's, medium build, wearing a Seahawks football jersey. The female was described as a black female juvenile, 14-15 years old, thin build, wearing a black shirt, and red and black pajama pants.

On arrival, other officers already contacted the male and female involved.

I contacted a witness, identified as [redacted]. Araceli told me the following in summary.

[redacted] said she heard arguing, and she saw a black male adult, heavy build, bald, wearing a seahawks jersey, jeans standing outside of the brown SUV. [redacted] told me she saw a door was open on the SUV, and she saw the male swinging his arm with a fist into the car where a black female juvenile wearing pajamas was sitting. [redacted] said she saw the black female juvenile get out of the car and run.

After talking to [redacted], I contacted two more witnesses, identified as [redacted] and [redacted]. They both said they saw the same thing and told me the following in summary.

[redacted] said she heard yelling "help me" in the parking lot. They saw the male drag the female, slam the door on her, and the female yelling that he was slamming the door on her. They also saw the male pulling her hair, dragging her, and when the female ran away, the male chased her in his car.

[redacted] videoed the incident partially. In the video it depicted what appeared to be a black male in a green/blue jersey swinging his arm up and down motion, and then you can see the male bend over and possibly pick up something or someone. [redacted] sent me a copy of the video which I later uploaded to Hillsboro Police Evidence.

I followed AMR transporting the female juvenile, Almira Davis, to Randall's Children Hospital.

At the hospital, I requested a strangulation kit to the nurse. Once DHS arrived, I told them the strangulation kit and CARES request.

I didn't see any visible injuries on Almira. Almira didn't want me to take photos of her.

I searched Almira's mother, Ashle Penn, in the law enforcement database and saw she had a felony warrant for failure to appear on charges of theft in the first degree and unlawful possession of methamphetamine. I told the DHS worker about the finding and she was already aware.

I left Almira with the DHS worker at Randall's.

No further action taken. See other officers reports for further details.

SCREENING REPORT NARRATIVE

Extent of Alleged Abuse:

Reporter contacted the hotline with concerns for 14-year Almira Davis. Reporter stated that Almira's father Alquan Davis is being arrested for criminal mistreatment 1st degree and strangulation to Almira. Mr. Davis is being transported to the Washington County Jail. Reporter stated Almira is currently being looked at by medics who are determining if she needs to go to the hospital.

Reporter stated that Hillsboro Police are requesting ODHS assistance as Mr. Davis is being arrested and Almira stated that there is no one in the home to care for her.

Circumstances of Alleged Abuse:

Reporter learned on 9/06/25 mid-morning Alquan started "chipping away" and antagonizing his daughter Almira. Reporter believes this all started because of a tv. Reporter stated Almira walked out of the apartment to step away from her dad to give them each some space to "cool off."

Alquan followed Almira out into the parking lot of their apartment complex. Alquan was yelling at Almira and started chasing after her. Almira called 911 asking for help. Dispatch could hear Almira telling Alquan to stop that he is hurting her, Dispatch could hear Alquan yelling at Almira, then multiple 911 calls came into dispatch. One caller stated that an adult male is punching a female juvenile in the backseat of a car, another caller reported an adult male is dragging female juvenile out of the car, then another caller stated adult male is strangling juvenile female on the ground by the backdoor of a car. Reporter stated with the multiple calls that came in dispatchers could hear different things, one heard Almira say she "can't breathe" another could hear Alquan yelling at Almira, another initially heard Almira telling Alquan to leave her alone.

Reporter stated law enforcement is still on scene and investigating the incident. Reporter stated it is unknown how Almira got into the backseat of the car.

Oregon Department of Human Services

Reporter stated that they do know that Alquan was seen punching Almira and then started strangling her when she was on the ground. Reporter stated there is video footage from different angles that law enforcement is reviewing.

Reporter stated that Alquan is being arrested for criminal mistreatment and strangulation. Reporter stated Alquan was arrested a few months ago for criminal mistreatment for assaulting Almira. Reporter stated that there was a no contact order between Alquan and Almira but that was recently lifted, and Almira is back in the home. Then Alquan assaulted Almira again today.

Reporter learned as medics were evaluating Almira, she stated that she does not have anyone to care for her once her dad goes to jail. Reporter stated they are aware that ODHS is assessing allegations of physical abuse and that the family has an ODHS caseworker. Reporter stated they would like the assistance of ODHS to plan for Almira today.

12:23pm This screener contacted the Washington County ODHS after-hours phone and spoke with caseworker Nicole Bennett. Nicole was provided the reporter's contact information and a summary of what happened.

Nicole messaged this screener at 12:43pm stating that Almira is being transported to Randall's Children's Hospital via ambulance. Nicole noted that Almira's sister [redacted] lives with their mother in Portland and did not witness anything that happened today.

Child Vulnerabilities:

Almira is diagnosed with ADHD and depression.

CHILD WELFARE HISTORY

Child Welfare History Summary:

7/31/25-Pending for physical abuse to Almira by her mother Ashle Penn. Ashle allegedly hit Almira with a belt. Almira reportedly has marks from the belt.

History under Ashle Penn 798764-

3/04/25-The allegation of physical abuse of the child, Almira Davis, by father, Alquan Davis, is unfounded. Almira reported that she was being disrespectful to her dad while they were driving to school and he hit her mouth with the back of his hand. She did not have any injury or lasting pain. Alquan Davis, father, provided the same explanation. Poynter Middle School principal, [redacted], did not observe any injuries to Almira's face. Hillsboro Police Department report number 53 2025-4730 dated 3/10/2025 indicates that father, Alquan, was driving Almira to school and she was just being disrespectful. He reached back with an open hand and swatted her cheek for cursing at him. She had no injuries. Conclusion: information only; refer to DA for review.

3/22/24- founded for physical abuse to Al-Mira by her father Alquan Davis. Al-Mira made disclosures that her father Al-Quan hit her with a belt across her legs to the point of injury. Al-Quan acknowledged hitting Al-Mira with a belt but reported hitting her 5-7 times and Al-Mira indicated he hit her 15-17 times. Al-Mira was able to provide pictures of her legs following this incident. In these photos, there are multiple striations across her shins that are consistent with markings from a belt. Al-Mira reported that it had hurt to walk following this incident and she reported ongoing bruising that was not visible due to the color of her skin but was still painful to the touch days after the incident. Al-Quan did not deny this incident occurring to ODHS, although he repeatedly denied physical discipline to LEA. In speaking with the school, they reported ongoing concerns for Al-Quan's temper and the disclosures that Al-Mira will make. There is a significant pattern of reports with concerns for physical abuse by Al-Quan and he has been educated by the agency about his use of physical discipline crossing the line into abuse. This dispositional finding is supported by the children's disclosures which were corroborated by photographs of the injuries and statements of concern by the child's mother.

Almira Davis is a 14 y.o. female admitted for SI after physical assault who was found to be at High risk for suicidality based on the Columbia-Suicide Severity Rating Scale (C-SSRS). The patient was placed on full suicide precautions including 1:1 observation, and screening of belongings with room safety checks.

At interview now, Almira Davis acknowledged they are safe from hurting themselves while in this facility and they will notify staff if suicidal thoughts or urges return while they are in this facility.

Based upon this discussion, it is determined that the patient remains safe while in this facility. It is determined 1:1 supervision shall be discontinued, and other suicide risk safety precautions are to be decreased subject to subsequent disclosure/screening and/or clinical interview. Given these variables the patient's category of suicide risk is changed to Moderate while at this facility. As a result of this screening, the patient will need to be assessed by a behavioral health clinician prior to discharge from this facility.

Incoming phone call from mom by way of hospital operator. Upon answering the phone, mom immediately began yelling at this RN that "I need to talk to my daughter now. I know she is there and your stupid ass operator keeps telling me she's not and hanging up on me." I calmly asked mom to refrain from using inappropriate language. Mom responded with yelling "I'm tired of y'all telling me she's not there because I talked to her yesterday." Explained that we would need to call her back as patient is still being assessed. Mom then began screaming "stop lying to me and let me speak to her now. This shit is ridiculous." This RN hung up the phone since mom was being verbally abusive and yelling. SW and DHS aware.

the house and and there was an argument between Almira and her father. Almira went to her dad's care to get her laptop and dad dragged her out of the car. There are witnesses and a video of dad either punching or elbowing Almira while taking her out of the car and of dad strangling her. In the video Almira can be heard saying she couldn't breath. 911 was called and Almira was transported by EMS to RCH. Dad was arrested on Criminal Mistreatment 1 and strangulation charges.

Previous or current CPS/LEA involvement:

DHS involvement

Other Pertinent Information:

ODHS reported there is long history of physical abuse to Almira. Dad has been charged multiple times for the abuse, including today. ODHS reported that parents do not cooperate with ODHS or LEA during assessments.

Initially when speaking with CW the plan was to get a hold of mom and have her take custody of Almira and take her home. I explained to CW that psych social worker, Leah reported that Almira had a plan for suicide and said she would carry it out if returned to her mother. CW said that was the plan.

When checking in with CW later the plan changed and ODHS had taken custody of Almira and would not have mom take custody of her, concerned that mom would take Almira out of the hospital AMA.

Comment:
An hCG result <25 mIU/mL in urine does NOT rule out pregnancy. A patient can still have hCG in the urine and give a <25 mIU/mL result if she has recently become pregnant. Interpret result with caution. If there is any question, order a quantitative hCG in serum (HCGQ) in 48 hours or more. A result >= 25 mIU/mL in urine is considered positive for hCG
