Good morning, anonymous court records requestor. After consulting with OJD General Counsel, I have determined Washington County Presiding Judge Order No. 332, In the Matter of the Jury Terms of the Circuit Court for 2025, dated December 13, 2023, is the only responsive court jury record [attached]. Original presiding judge orders are maintained in 3-ring binders. I have certified this court jury record is a true and correct copy of the original. Reply with your mailing address if you need my certified copy with blue ink signature and red ink seal.

Your technical requests (i.e., native electronic format, associated metadata, recorded in Oregon eCourt case management system) do not apply because presiding judge orders are not managed electronically.

There are no responsive court jury records titled “special session order, emergency order, or other administrative order.”

Because this was a simple and quick court records request to complete, there is no charge. For future reference, court records requests do generally cost money for attorney consultation and review time and IT query time. OJD endeavors to keep costs associated with completing court records request reasonable to avoid creating undue barriers to court records access. I like to mention this when court records requests are completed without charge, so requestors are not surprised or upset when they get charged in the future.

Hello anonymous court records requestor. As you may know, most Oregon court records are public. Some are confidential (e.g., adoptions, juvenile). Jury records fall somewhere in between, and most detailed jury records are not public.

You have requested various court orders concerning grand jury. As Washington County Trial Court Administrator and Records Custodian, I need to consult with OJD General Counsel before determining if we have responsive records which are public.

After this attorney consultation, I will endeavor to respond to your technical requests. Here the OJD IT department will need to be involved as I am not the person to gather “metadata” and “audit logs.”

One step at a time. Give me a week or so to determine if requested court orders concerning grand jury are public. If yes, I will provide any responsive records. If no, the technical requests do not need to be addressed.

Hello Mr. Moellmer,

On March 2, 2026, I contacted the Oregon Judicial Department Office of General Counsel regarding this request after speaking with Washington County Circuit Court clerks who were unable to locate this specific record. I was advised by Mr. Sam Dupree that the record I am seeking is a record of this court specifically and not one overseen by the State Trial Court Administrator.

I am therefore submitting a public records request directly to you as the Trial Court Administrator for Washington County Circuit Court under ORS 192.324. The request is seeking any Presiding Judge Order, special session order, emergency order, or other administrative order authorizing or empaneling a grand jury to convene or sit in Washington County at any time between January 1, 2025 and January 31, 2025.

I am requesting that any responsive documents be produced in their native electronic format, including all associated metadata, or alternatively as certified copies with the original filing date stamp as recorded in the Oregon eCourt case management system. I am also requesting the OJD audit log reflecting all access to and modifications of Presiding Judge Orders for Washington County Circuit Court for the period October 1, 2024 through March 2, 2026.

Thank you for your assistance.
