NOTICE: READ THESE PAPERS CAREFULLY

TO: AL-MIRA DAVIS

In the Name of the State of Oregon:

SETTLEMENT: 10/14/25 @ 9:30AM
You are directed to personally appear in Juvenile Court, 222 N. First Avenue, Hillsboro, Oregon on:

10/14/25 at 10:00 am pm to admit or deny the allegations in the Petition; and on 10/31/25 at 9:00 am pm for an evidentiary hearing (trial) on the allegations in the Petition and at any subsequent court-ordered hearing.

A Petition has been filed under ORS 419B.100 alleging that the condition or circumstances of the above-named child(ren) are such as to endanger their welfare or the welfare of others. A copy of the Petition is attached. If you do not appear at the hearings noted above or at any subsequent court-ordered hearing, the Court may proceed in your absence, without further notice to you, and allow the petitioner to put on evidence about the allegations in the Petition, take jurisdiction (wardship) of the child(ren), either on the date specified in this Summons or on a future date, and make such orders and take other such action as is authorized by law, including but not limited to establishing wardship over the child(ren), ordering the removal of the child(ren) from the legal and physical custody of the parent(s), guardian(s), or other person having legal or physical custody of the child(ren), and, if the petition alleges that the child(ren) have been physically or sexually abused, restraining you from having contact with, or attempting to contact, the child(ren) and requiring you to move from the household in which the child(ren) reside.

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

You have a right to be represented by an attorney. If you wish to be represented by an attorney, please retain one as soon as possible to represent you in this proceeding. If you are the child(ren), or the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of the child(ren), and you cannot afford to hire an attorney and you meet the state's financial guidelines you are entitled to have an attorney appointed for you at state expense. To request appointment of an attorney to represent you at state expense, you must contact the juvenile court immediately. Phone 503-846-4701 for further information.

You have the responsibility to maintain contact with your attorney and to keep your attorney advised of your whereabouts. This Petition may be amended to add or change allegations. If you fail to appear for this hearing, the court may proceed to find the new allegations true even though you do not have a copy of the Amended Petition.

At any hearing at which you are required to appear personally, you must inform the court of your current residence address, mailing address and telephone number. No later than 30 days from the date the Petition is filed, you must admit or deny the allegations, either orally or in writing. Allegations not admitted or denied are denied. ORS 419B.869(2).

You have the legal obligation to support your child(ren). You may be required to pay for compensation and reasonable expenses for the child(ren)'s attorney. You may be required to pay support for the child(ren) while the child(ren) are in state financed or state supported custody depending upon your ability to pay support. You may be required to provide health insurance coverage for the child(ren) while the child(ren) are in state financed or state supported custody. You may be required to pay other costs that arise from the child(ren) being in the jurisdiction of the court. If you are ordered to pay for the child(ren)'s support or there is an existing order of support from a divorce or other proceeding, that support order may be assigned to the state to apply to the costs of the child(ren)'s care.
