

FACT FINDINGS

What facts demonstrate that it is in the best interest of the child to be placed in the Temporary Custody of DHS – Child Welfare?

The mother does not understand the specific needs of this child and lacks skills necessary to safely parent. The mother fails to recognize the safety threats presents by the father and is unwilling or unable to protect the child from father's unsafe behaviors. The mother is involved in criminal activities which interfere with her ability to safely parent the child.

The father has engaged in a pattern of physical abuse towards the child, which places the child at risk of harm. The father is engaged in criminal activities and currently incarcerated, which interferes with his ability to safely parent the child.

What facts demonstrate that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for this placement? (If no services have been offered, would any service have eliminated the need for placement?)

Due to the immediate safety concerns, placement in protective custody was the option available. Father is incarcerated on charges for which the child is the victim. Mother was not open to engaging with ODHS regarding the safety concerns and planning for the child.

What is the parent's current address and telephone number, and, if the parent has a contact person, the name, current address and telephone number of the contact person.

OVERS

Gathered from report on 09/13/2023:

Al'Quan and Ashle are parents to [REDACTED] and Al'Mira.

ORKIDS indicates that Ashle and Barry Washington are parents to child Feliciano Washington; Child not found in OVERS.

EXTENT OF ALLEGED ABUSE

Concerns for child, Almira Davis(12), by father, Alquan Davis. According to the reporter, on 03/21/2024 Alquan came to pick up Almira and was demanding to see Almiras tablet. Alquan looked into her history and saw that Almira was emailing her mother. Alquan began to yell at Almira stating, "who are you going to live with me or your mom". Alquan demanded Almira to figure where you want to go. Reporter shared Alquan later showed up with Almira suitcase and said, "if you can't get ahold of your mom that is not my problem". Reporter shared staff had to call law enforcement due to Alquan's behavior. Reporter shared that in the morning of 03/21/2024 Almira disclosed she was "beat by her dad with a belt" due being late for school. Almira reported she had injuries from this.

It was reported when LEA responded there was no observed injuries on Almira, however the incident had happened earlier that morning.

CIRCUMSTANCES OF ALLEGED ABUSE

Reporter shared that Almira woke up late for school and was on the toilet when Alquan found her. Alquan reportedly ripped her off the toilet and hit her with a belt. Reporter shared Almira was emailing her mother the injuries from the belt which is what Alquan was seeing in her tablet. Reporter shared that Almira is not fearful of her mother for physical abuse, however, doesn't want to live with her mother due to substance misuse.

Almira shared that Alquan hits her about every two weeks she "gets beat with a buckle or a belt". Almira shared that he often hits everywhere on her body. Almira shared she often gets hit in the arms, shoulders, butt, leg or stomach. Reporter shared at this time Almira did not report injuries for these incidents. Reporter shared about a year ago. Almira was slapped by her father in the hallway of the after-school program and the slap was so hard it was heard through a closed door.

Almira struggles with attendances at school. Almira has run away from her home for two nights at a time per Alquan. Almira shares that she tried going back in the home, however, the door was locked. Almira was hit under her bed, so her father thinks she went to school and then she was later leaving the home. Almira is on track developmentally. Almira is currently not passing any of her classes at this time. Almira has friends at school. Alquan is reportedly wanting to take away Almira from seeing her friend and stated she will not be able to go outside. It is unknown if she has any mental health or medical needs. Almira has been required to see a therapist; however, it is unknown when the last appointment was. No concerns for lack of food in the home or for her hygiene. No other known supports other than possible therapy, afterschool program, and school.

Reporter shared that Alquan works. Reporter believes Alquan is a school bus driver. No known mental health or medical needs. Reporter believes that Alquan uses marijuana. Reporter shared that Alquan was using marijuana in front of the police on 03/21/2024. No other known substances. Reporter shared that Alquan often comes to get Almira friends to turn against her and to make himself not appear like a "bad guy". Alquan indicates that Almira is "overdramatic". Reporter shared there is concern that there is more violence happening in the home than what the reporter knows. No known beliefs, values, or traditions. Reporter shared she is "Muslimi".

Reporter doesn't know much about the child's mother as the child stated she uses substances and sees her mother about once a week.

OVERS

Per 13 Sep 23 screening report,

Al'Quan and Ashle are parents to [REDACTED] and Al'Mira. No additional children listed for Al'Quan or Ashle.

EXTENT OF ALLEGED ABUSE

Approximately 1 year ago at Alquan's residence, [REDACTED] was cleaning her room and Alquan was upset because she wasn't cleaning her room "the way he wanted" (not known what this looked like). Alquan hit [REDACTED] with a plastic hanger repeatedly until the hanger broke. No marks, bruises, or injuries were reported. Impact to the child is not known.

In another incident, believed to have occurred approximately 1 year ago (but after the prior incident), [REDACTED] was seated on the toilet naked from the waist down. Alquan entered the bathroom and asked her if she had worn his socks. [REDACTED] said she hadn't worn his socks. Alquan slapped her across the face and then asked her if she had worn his socks. [REDACTED] said she hadn't worn his socks. Alquan slapped her across the face and then asked her if she had worn his socks. This cycle repeated 3 to 4 times until [REDACTED] said she had worn his socks. Reporter believes [REDACTED] said she wore the socks only to get Alquan to stop slapping her. After she said she wore his socks, Alquan slapped her several more times. It is reported he slapped her 7 times altogether. The following day, [REDACTED] eye was still sore from this.

Amira and [REDACTED] said Alquan regularly walks in on them while they are in the bathroom, and he will physically discipline them even if they are seated on the toilet. Amira and [REDACTED] said this makes them uncomfortable.

CIRCUMSTANCES OF ALLEGED ABUSE

Reporter said Amira and [REDACTED] do not have a disability or need for individualized supports.

Reporter said Alquan uses marijuana, but he keeps it away from Amira and [REDACTED] Reporter is not aware of any mental health concerns for Alquan.

Reporter didn't know if Alquan is in a relationship at this time. His previous relationship with Ashle was described as "volatile." Reporter couldn't provide additional information about what this looked like.

HISTORY REVIEW

A Child Welfare review indicates this report is on an open assessment and has not been previously assessed. There have multiple prior reports of physical abuse to Amira and [REDACTED] by Alquan with no FOUNDED reports.

Text message from AshLe' asking if worker had received the messaged she had sent that Al-Mira had returned to Al-Quan's house. Worker responded they had not and AshLe' replied that Al-Mira had left because she feels like her mom's house is a "prison" and that Al-Mira is currently not talking to her much because she is upset that AshLe's car wasn't available and so she was unable to take her to boxing. AshLe' denied having had any new concerns for Al-Mira's safety since she returned to her dad's house.

The following email was sent to AshLe':

Good morning AshLe',

I wanted to check in as we received another report of concern for Al-Mira the other day and I wanted to verify that she is residing with you. I know Detective Hahn has been in contact with you and I was wondering if Al-Mira would be willing to participate in going to CARES NW at this point in time.

Thank you,

AshLe' sent an email requesting more information about the recent closed at screening reports. She reported that Al-Mira returned to Al-Quan's home on Sunday in preparation for school and that she had not heard anything out of the ordinary. She shared that she returned to her dad's so that she can get to school. AshLe' reported that she intends to continue to address CARES NW with Al-Mira

The following email was sent to AshLe': Good morning AshLe', We received 2 calls that are dated 4/25 and 4/26. Both were closed at screening and one noted that Al-Mira was with you and was concerned for her not attending school. The other mentioned a physical incident between Al-Quan or Al-Mira, but was not assigned as it appears to be an incident that was previously assessed and also notes police involvement that I verified did not occur recently. As far as assisting with transportation, I can help with bus/trimet passes and potentially other resources if there is anything specific that would be helpful to you that I can run past my supervisor for approval. It is the case that we are concerned for safety at Al-Quan's house and that if she does not remain in your home, the agency may have to look at legal intervention to prevent her from continuing to reside there. As such, if there is anything that would be helpful to you for Al-Mira to stay with you, I am more than happy to send it to my supervisor for approval so that we can maintain that a family plan is occurring to assure your daughter's safety. I will also reach out to the school and ask if there's any transportation assistance they are able to provide from your home to the school. Have you considered seeking a change to the custody agreement with the current concerns for physical abuse by Al-Quan? I unfortunately don't know what CARES NW has available, if she agrees to go, they would reach out to you to find a time that works for your schedule. I believe they are scheduling around a month out at this point, but I am not positive about that. Please let me know how I can assist,

Phone call with Detective Michelle Hahn. AshLe' reported that her car was towed and then sold in an auction and she currently has no vehicle. Reported that AshLe' is likely to have both girls at her house over the summer. Both girls went swimming at dad's over weekend and neither expressed anything concerning having happened. Al-Mira is continuing to tell her mom that she feels safe at her dad's house.

COMPREHENSIVE ASSESSMENT

Child Functioning

Participant: [REDACTED]	DOB: [REDACTED]
Child Functioning: [REDACTED] is a [REDACTED]-year-old female. [REDACTED] is an 8th grader. She is enrolled with an online school. She is a talented artist and has also crocheted dolls. The interview with [REDACTED] was short as she requested to be done speaking with the worker and more information was unable to be gathered at this point in time. AshLe' described [REDACTED] as the most respectful, grateful, selfless, polite person that she knows.

Participant: Almira A. Davis	DOB: 06/23/2011
Child Functioning: Al-Mira is a 12-year-old female. She is a 7th grader at Poynter Middle School. She spoke with the worker primarily around the concerns for the extent and not much was obtained regarding her personal functioning. When worker spoke to her a second time, Al-Mira preferred to go back to class than speak in depth about anything. Al-Quan reported that Al-Mira doesn't engage with her counselor and will spend the whole hour dancing around things and he believes that this is because AshLe' has instilled in the girls a fear of disclosing anything to counselors. Al-Quan reported that she will only speak to the school counselor after she gets disciplined. Al-Quan reported that Al-Mira is overdramatic and will cause a scene, he described her as is himself times 10. AshLe' reported that she does not want Al-Mira's fire to be put out because she knows that it is something that her daughter will need throughout her life.

Adult Functioning

Participant: Ashle A. Penn	DOB: 02/15/1988
Adult Functioning: AshLe' is a 36-year-old female. She made statements regarding working in Clackamas but did not disclose where she is employed. AshLe' studied Communications. AshLe' expressed that she continues to disagree with the agency for removing her children and that she would like to seek legal action in the future in relation to this. AshLe' describes herself as a "mama bear" and denies that any of her children have ever been subjected to harm while in her care. She expressed that she believes that the threat of harm for which her children were removed was poorly documented and observed. She reported that she and Barry had a hard year and that having a new baby had added pressures that were heavy on them. She stated that when Barry was on probation, even that governing body had found no place to keep their family apart (this, in actuality, is the opposite of what court records document). AshLe' reported that when she and Barry would argue, she was a buffer between them and the children and that they had separated for a time and done what they needed to do. Al-Quan reported that AshLe' is malicious. He stated that she is upset that she lost custody and instead of telling the girls that their dad would care for them, she undermined him and told them that she was coming back for them. He reported this leading to their rebelliousness. He stated that he would never take her back. A previous psychological evaluation was performed with AshLe'. It documents the following: "There are elements of histrionic and narcissistic personality, but Ms. Penn was mildly defensive in her responding. Individuals with this profile tend to display at times impetuous behavior and yet have a high self regard, viewing themselves as highly reliable and as disciplined in their communication. This profile is obtained by two groups of individuals. The first group includes well-functioning, generally adaptive individuals with no major personality disturbances who may be experiencing current psychosocial stressors. The second group of people show some behaviors which others may find difficult to tolerate. Typically, individuals with this profile have little in the way of uncertainty and while adept at winning over the favor of other initially, many relationships may not be long lasting. Individuals with this profile are often also unwilling to examine their own role in difficult situations in a somewhat erratic fashion. She is more novelty seeking than average. Most notable is that this profile is someone with a very forceful and driven energy level who is likely to be quite ambitious, leading a highly structured and strictly organized existence. Individuals with this profile are unlikely to seek individual psychotherapy." This portrayal of personality was observed to continue to be accurate during this current assessment.

Participant: Alquan A. Davis	DOB: 09/04/1978
Adult Functioning: Al-Quan is a 45-year-old male. He works as a school bus driver and further supplements his income by working as a driver for UberEats. Al-Quan is participating in Ramadan, although he does not identify as Muslim. He reported that he participates in Ramadan in honor of his mother. Al-Quan shared that he is only here for his daughters. He originally is from New Jersey and none of his family, beyond his daughters, reside in this area. Al-Quan stated that his lack of control over his daughters resulted in his divorce from his recent wife. Al-Quan needs a knee replacement, however has been told that he is too young at this point to receive the surgery. Al-Quan presents as very polite and willing to do whatever the agency requests. It is notable that in Al-Mira's cares documentation from 2023, that he told them he was glad that ODHS was involved and would like any supports they could offer. Similarly, when ODHS contacted him in regards to this current assessment, he expressed that he was actually glad for the involvement because he would have parenting support. Al-Quan was interested in participating in Greater New Hope again, whose services he completed during the prior assessment. It was determined that he has completed this program and the agency is now past the point of utilizing those services. At no point did Al-Quan deny that he has used objects to hit either of his children. He at different times stated that there is a cultural difference and that hitting his children is the build up of a number of incidents rather than the result of one singular incident. He at times suggested that it was an issue that his family and friends do not live in the area resulting in a lack of people he can lean on for parenting supports. AshLe' reported that she would say her daughters are safe with Al-Quan but that he has a short temper that he needs to work on. She reported that she doesn't think that Al-Quan is a bad man, but that he is the product of his upbringing.

Parental Practices

Disciplinary Practices/Knowledge: Al-Quan reported that he used to be able to just threaten the girls that he would spank their butt and that was enough, but AshLe' pointed out to them that he was just saying that and in doing so took away his power. Al-Quan reported that he has tried talking to the girls or taking things away, but that this has no impact on them. AshLe' reported that she does not approve of Al-Quan hitting their daughters and that she has tried to counsel him that it is not appropriate to hit them or lock them out of the home, but that he will not find another way.
Parenting Practices/Knowledge: Al-Quan reported that it hurts to know that his children are leaning towards their mom. He would like them to reside with him, but he is trying to let them grow. Al-Quan reported that Al-Mira is a lot and he needs help and expressed that he is happy ODHS is back and involved because he feels he has no support and he knows the agency can provide assistance. Al-Quan reported that he would like for [REDACTED] to return to living with him, but that police have said that she is 14 and has some amount of say in where she wants to be so they won't make her come back to his home. Al-Quan reported that his daughters are the only women that he would do anything for.

Disciplinary Practices/Knowledge: AshLe' reported that communication is very important to her and that she will speak to her children. She reported that her parents were phenomenal but missing that and so it is something she strives for.
Parenting Practices/Knowledge: AshLe' expressed that her daughters missed a lot in being separated from her and that they as a whole are suffering the repercussions. She identified that Al-Quan is more lighthearted while she is the more serious parent. Communication is of high importance to her and that she has tried to communicate to her children that it is okay and natural to disagree with others. During the interview with [REDACTED] became emotional and AshLe' was observed to reassure her that she doesn't want anything bad to happen to them and that they would all call Al-Quan together after ODHS left and get everything out in the open. She reassured [REDACTED] that they would tell him that something needs to change so they can all move on. AshLe' spoke highly of her daughters and their differences. She shared with humor that she thought in having daughters she would have shopping partners, but this was not necessarily the case. She shared that [REDACTED] is an artist and excitedly showed off some dolls that [REDACTED] had crocheted and some of her sketches. AshLe' shared that Al-Mira is more into music and that when Al-Mira calls her and asks mom to take her to school because she missed the bus and doesn't want to get in trouble, Al-Mira will put on music that she is enjoying and AshLe' enjoys sharing that bond through music with her daughter.

Extent of the Child Abuse:

On March 22nd, the agency received a report of concern regarding Physical Abuse by Al-Quan Davis to his daughter, Al-Mira Davis. It was reported that on 3/21/24, Al-Quan came to pick up Al-Mira from an after school program and demanded to see her tablet. Upon looking at her history and seeing that she was emailing her mother, AshLe' Penn, Al-Quan is reported to have begun yelling at Al-Mira stating, "Who are you going to live with, me or your mom?" It was reported that he later showed up with her suitcase and stated that "if you can't get ahold of your mom, that's not my problem." It was reported that Al-Mira disclosed that she had been beat with a belt by her dad due to being late to school. Al-Mira reported that she had been on the toilet when Al-Quan had ripped her off of it to beat her with a belt. She reported that he will be beat with a buckle or a belt about every 2 weeks. It was reported that about a year ago, Al-Mira was slapped so hard by Al-Quan, that it was heard through the door at the afterschool program.

On March 26th, another report was received with concerns for Physical Abuse by Al-Quan Davis to his daughter, [REDACTED]

It was reported that approximately one year ago, [REDACTED] was cleaning her room and Al-Quan was upset because she was not cleaning it the way he wanted and as a result hit [REDACTED] with a hanger until it broke. It was reported that there was an incident when [REDACTED] was sitting on the toilet and Al-Quan approached her and asked if she had worn his socks, when she said no he slapped her across the face it was reported that this was repeated until [REDACTED] said she had worn them and she was slapped 7 times in total. It was reported that her eye continued to hurt the following day from this incident.

On April 25th, the agency received a report that was Closed at Screening. It was reported that Al-Quan had been witnessed beating AL-Mira in the apartment complex parking lot. It was reported that police were contacted and responded and that this happened in the last few weeks. It was reported that [REDACTED] his in hiding with her mother, AshLe', who is not allowed more than 2 hours of supervised visitation a week. This call was closed at screening after Hillsboro Police Department was contacted and they reported that there have been no calls of this nature recently and that the only recent report is a run report that was dated the day prior to this call.

On April 26th, the agency received a report of concern that was closed at Screening. It was reported that Al-Mira is living with her mother at an unknown address. Reporter was concerned due to not having an address for her location.

The reporting party from the initial call reported that Al-Quan's demeanor changes as soon as there is a person of authority present. They reported that when police arrived, Al-Quan went from angry and yelling to acting sweet and responsible and denying any physical discipline with his daughter. They reported that Al-Quan is very much about trying to teach Al-Mira lessons and shared that when Al-Mira was in the police car to go to her mom's, Al-Quan stated that 'everyone is going to learn from this.'

In an interview with Al-Mira, she reported that she had missed the bus and her dad came home and thought she was hiding. She reported that he had come into the bathroom and hit her with a belt 15-16 times. She reported that he had told her that she had 2 minutes to get ready and then when he dropped her off at school had told her that he loves her. She reported that in response to this she told him that he could yap all he wants but she doesn't really care. She reported that her teacher could see that she was really down and she ended up spending most of the day in the health room. She reported that she went to the afterschool program and had finished her homework. When her dad arrived, he demanded to see her chromebook, saw that she'd been on Temu and stated that this wasn't homework, to which she responded she had finished it. Al-Mira reported that her father had then gotten in the staff's face and said she was not going to be coming anymore and got into another child's face and told them to stay away from her. She reported that he then left and she messaged her mom to come pick her up. Al-Quan then came back and demanded to see who she had messaged, and when he saw it was AshLe' told her that she could come home or go live with AshLe'. When she was silent, he said that she had made her choice and good luck if her mom didn't pick her up. Al-Mira reported that the staff members had then locked the doors so he couldn't come back in and had told her they would have to call DHS. She reported that police had come and taken pictures of her injuries. Al-Mira reported that her dad had wanted to see her off to her mom's house and when she was getting in the police car, Al-Quan had given her a hug and asked her if she wanted him to put her things back inside the house, to which she responded no. Al-Mira reported that she has been locked out of the house 4-5 times. In clarifying some of the events of the day, Al-Mira reported that when her father hit her with the belt, she was sitting on the toilet and was not fully dressed. She reported that he will come in when they are on the toilet sometimes on accident or because he doesn't care. She reported that he will tell them that it doesn't matter because they are his daughters so he's seen everything. Al-Mira demonstrated how Al-Quan had folded the belt in half twice. She reported that while hitting her with it, the belt came unfolded and he continued to hit her with it while she screamed at him to stop. She reported that she was very sore afterwards and that it hurt to walk. She reported that it had left the marks on her legs that she had taken pictures of and also left bruises that still hurt but are not visible on her skin. AshLe' asked Al-Mira if she ever gets in trouble without being hit and Al-Mira gave an example of an unrelated person won't hurt her if she's in trouble. The question was reframed to if she ever gets in trouble with dad without getting hit and Al-Mira responded maybe once. Al-Mira reported that she feels safe with her dad when he is in a happy mood. She described his happy moods as him wanting to chat. She reported that when he is mad, he yells or is on the phone. Al-Mira disclosed an incident about a year ago where he was mad because the bedroom wasn't cleaned the way he felt it should be and he hit [REDACTED] with a plastic hanger so hard that it broke. Al-Mira reported that she was washing dishes when this occurred. Al-Mira also disclosed an incident when her father had been hitting her and [REDACTED] was trying to pull him off of her and [REDACTED] had been hit hard in the process but continued to try their dad off of her.

In an interview with [REDACTED] she expressed that she feels that her mom's house is where she was always meant to be. She expressed that it's home and she feels more welcomed and safe at mom's. When asked why she feels less safe at dad's, she shared that he is not rational. She expressed concern that she knows he is going through a lot and needs someone to be there for him. She reported that her dad has a short temper and that he is trying his best. [REDACTED] reported the last time she was hit by Al-Quan, was in incident where he asked if she had been wearing his socks and she denied it resulting in him slapping her across the face. He then asked again, to which she denied it and he slapped her across the face and stated that he could do this all night. She reported that this was repeated about 7 times. She reported that this had caused her eye to hurt. AshLe' added that she was doing [REDACTED] hair the next morning at the bus stop and when [REDACTED] had gone to get out of the car, she indicated that her eye was sensitive to the wind as a result of this incident.

AshLe' reported that during the incident, Al-Quan had contacted her and said that her daughter was in the office and waiting on her. She shared that she responded that she would be there as fast as she could be and that Al-Mira could go home and that she would be there. That she is always there and that she does not want to make her daughters be anywhere they don't want to be. She reported that instead of letting Al-Mira come home and wait to be picked up, the police transported Al-Mira to her home. She reported that following this Al-Quan had called her and said "we need to talk" and that this is a call that she has gotten before. AshLe' reported that this is not the first time that Al-Quan has locked the children out of the house. She expressed that she gets frustrated with him and stated that she does not believe that he is a bad man, but thinks he is a product of his upbringing. AshLe' reported that she has tried to counsel Al-Quan and told him that he has young daughters and he cannot lock them out of their home. She reported that she gets messages every few weeks from her daughter asking her to come pick her up. AshLe' reported that she does not have a problem if the girls want to be with their father and that it's up to them who they want to be with. AshLe' expressed her frustration that their custody agreement hinges on there being no physical discipline but that Al-Quan disregards this. She stated that Al-Mira does have an attitude and that she is not happy with how Al-Mira regards authority; but that Al-Quan does not try to find another way and that she does not support or endorse him hitting their nearly fully grown daughters. She expressed that in paying child support, she feels like she is paying to watch her daughters be abused when her children never came to harm in her care. She reported that Al-Quan has an "I have custody" attitude. She expressed feeling like it's in part her fault because she hasn't been able to take much action. She reported that she had been unable to challenge the custody agreement until she had one of her children back in her custody. AshLe' reported that her daughters have the abilities and capacities to determine which home they want to be in; but that Al-Quan views it as an insult to himself if the girls want to be with her and tells them that if they go to their mom they won't see him again. She stated that this is an absurd stance because it isn't a win-lose situation. AshLe' stated that Al-Quan needs to be held accountable to their court order as well as to what is acceptable to society.

In talking with the Dean of Students and the Principal at Poynter Middle School, they shared that they know this family well and described the family dynamic as very volatile and as a dysfunctional household that is crashing. It was reported that Al-Quan and AshLe' have a contentious, volatile relationship. The principal reported that recently they had an issue with Al-Mira asking to buy a vape from another student and then being found with one on her last week. The principal reported that he had reached out to Al-Quan, who is usually very receptive and will call him back if he misses the principal's call, but that he had never heard back from Al-Quan regarding that concern. The principal reported that Al-Mira claimed to have found the vape, though they believe they know which student she got it from, and he expressed concern that she is spiraling. He reported that on 3/21, Al-Mira had come to school and reported that her dad had hit her. They reported that Al-Mira has disclosed that Al-Quan is aggressive, yells, and takes away their things. The principal reported that the school has provided Al-Quan with care provider resources for counseling. They identified that while Al-Mira may elaborate at times, everything Al-Mira says has truth to it. Al-Quan was described as having a temper and being very old-fashioned. They described [REDACTED] as being very similar to AshLe' and Al-Mira as being very similar to Al-Quan.

In an interview with Al-Quan, he reported that ever since their mother had shown them court records, the children have a notion that discipline practices do not apply to them. He reported that their mother has told them that if they are in the bathroom then he can't discipline them and so they will try to use this to get out of being in trouble. In correlation with the incident with Al-Mira, Al-Quan reported that the night before, he had made a nice dinner and told Al-Mira that it was her job to wash the dishes. He reported that she had not washed the dishes as he had asked. Al-Quan reported that in the morning, he had woken her up and told her that if she didn't make the bus he was going to spank her butt. He reported that upon finishing his bus route, he returned home about 9:30am and saw her run across her room. He reported that she told him that she had missed the bus, but he knew she was lying because she was wearing the same clothes as the night before. Al-Quan reported that he had an 11am appointment to get a cortisone shot in his knee and told Al-Mira that she had a certain amount of time to get ready before he came in and spanked her butt. He reported that he could tell that she was prolonging it and that he gave her even more time- which he estimated to have been about an hour. Al-Quan reported that it reached the point that he followed through and spanked her with a belt 7-8 times. He reported that he knows that he cannot hit her with a long belt, at which point he fetched a belt which he then used to demonstrate wrapping a number of times around his hand so that there was a 4-5 inch tail. He reported that she had been sitting on the toilet and he had hit her bare thighs with the belt. Al-Quan spoke about how both girls will sit on the toilet because they believe he can't discipline them in that circumstance and how he knew that she had just been sitting on the toilet because after he spanked her with the belt and she left the bathroom, she didn't flush the toilet. Al-Quan reported that recently his daughter told him that he always says he's going to do something but that he never does. He reported that he has tried talking to his daughters or taking things away but they will still act out and that his daughters believe they don't have to clean up or do chores. Al-Quan reported that he has even threatened to take them to a group home, but that they don't care. He believes they don't care because AshLe' has always told them she is coming back for them; and it doesn't matter where you are living if mom is coming for you. Al-Quan also expressed, with almost a dejectedness, that there are no scared straight programs for children if they have no juvenile charges. Al-Quan denied physical discipline being an everyday occurrence but that he is not a push over and that he tries to stand his ground. Al-Quan expressed that he provides food, shelter, and clothes but that it's hard when you have kids that you can take everything from and it doesn't bother them.

In relation to the part of the report that occurred at the afterschool program, Al-Quan reported that between when he had told Al-Mira she could go to her mother's and when he spoke with the police later in the evening, he had been in contact with [REDACTED] to let her know what was going on and that he had been in the parking lot to see if AshLe' would show up. Al-Quan stated that he knew that Al-Mira was inside with proper supervision and that he was calling her bluff about wanting to go to her mother's. He stated that he is trying every angle to get through to Al-Mira. Al-Quan reported that he also was able to get ahold of AshLe' before the police. He stated that he doesn't really want his daughters to be at AshLe's and that he believes that Al-Mira would rather be with him but she doesn't want to follow the rules. Al-Quan denied having locked Al-Mira out and stated that the door is always unlocked. It was observed that when Al-Quan returned from a delivery to meet with ODHS, his front door was unlocked and had been while he was away. He has a camera that looks down the hallway and sends him notification whenever the front door opens. He shared that Al-Mira forgot her key frequently so he had stopped locking the door so that she would have access to the home. Al-Quan also reported that he had told the staff at the afterschool program that Al-Mira needed to leave, but instead of sending her on her way, they wouldn't let Al-Mira leave and had her sit there until 10pm.

When informed of the other disclosures that had been made regarding [REDACTED] he denied having hit her with a hanger and stated that he was unsure where that would come from. He stated that he doesn't even have plastic hangers and that he has hangers that break easily. He denied the incident regarding hitting [REDACTED] for wearing his socks. He stated that this had not happened and also that this has already been assessed and documented and had been a result of a series of issues around her not cleaning up and talking back (a review of history suggests that he may be referring to a call received 3/2023). Al-Quan stated that it's a different culture.

In police report 24-5734, it documents police response to the afterschool program in relation to this incident at about 8pm. Al-Mira disclosed to police that earlier in the day, about 9am, her father had come into the bathroom and hit her on the arms and legs approximately 15 times with a belt because she had missed the bus to school. Police did not see any marks to Al-Mira's arms. Police did not document any injuries to Al-Mira's thighs other than a scuff mark on her thigh. Al-Mira showed police the images she had taken shortly after Al-Quan had hit her with the belt and they took pictures of this to enter into evidence. Al-Mira reported that he hits her with a belt every 2 weeks or so. Al-Mira disclosed that at about 7:30pm that evening, Al-Quan had come to the location and yelled at her to decide if she wanted to go home with him or go to her mother's. When she did not answer, he later came back with her personal items and told her not to come back home. Staff also disclosed that Al-Quan had yelled at staff and another student in addition to Al-Mira. Police documented that at around 10pm, Al-Quan returned and flagged the officer down saying that he was returning to see if his daughter was still there because he knew the program ended at this time. Police explained that he cannot lock his 12-year-old daughter out of the house and he stated that he was returning to get her if she was still there, but assumed she would be going to her mother's for the night as that's where she wanted to be. Al-Quan reported that Al-Mira took a long time getting ready in the morning and was late for school. He reported that he verbally disciplined her but denied physically disciplining her. It was noted by police that when asking Al-Quan about disciplining Al-Mira, Al-Quan denied doing so but at times would remain quiet or change the subject.

On April 26th, Hillsboro Police reported that prior to the day before, the most recent police report was from March 26th. The call on April 24th, was a run report made by Al-Quan at 6pm. A follow up call was made on April 25th by Al-Quan, who notified police at 1:30pm that Al-Mira had attended school that afternoon.

Follow up discussions with the school documented no further concerns.

SAFETY THREAT IDENTIFICATION

Impending Danger Safety Threat:	One or both parents' or caregivers' behavior is violent and/or they are acting (behaving) dangerously.
Threat Identified:	No
Vulnerable Child(ren):
Narrative: Observable: Met. Al-Quan does not deny that he hit Al-Mira with a belt. Al-Mira presented photos shortly after the event documenting marks to her legs as well as reported ongoing bruising from this. Out of Control: Not Met. While Al-Quan has sole custody of his children, both children are residing with their mother and out of his care. Imminence: Not Met. The children are residing with their mother. Al-Quan states that when he disciplines his children it is a result of numerous issues, not for every time they misbehave. Vulnerable: Not Met. The children do not have extenuating circumstances that increase their vulnerability beyond that which is typical for their age. They are able to communicate effectively and advocate for their needs. Severity: Not Met. Al-Quan disciplined Al-Mira by means of hitting her with a belt which left marks and lasting bruises to her body, however does not meet the level of severity necessitated by this criteria.

Impending Danger Safety Threat:	One or both parents' or caregivers' behavior is impulsive or they will not/cannot control their behavior.
Threat Identified:	No
Vulnerable Child(ren):
Narrative: Observable: Met. Al-Quan has a significant history of reports with concerns for physical abuse to his children. He has participated in services and continues in this behavior of physically disciplining his children. The inability to control this behavior after having participated in services suggests a level of impulsivity to his behaviors. Out of Control: Not Met. While Al-Quan has sole custody, AshLe' is able to intervene and protect. Imminence: Not Met. Both children are residing outside of Al-Quan's home. Vulnerable: Met. While neither child has extenuating circumstances, prior interventions have not mitigated the concern for Al-Quan's behaviors. Severity: Met. Al-Quan continues to react with anger to his children, resulting in injury to his daughter.

Justification for the Disposition:

Report 3726396. The allegation of Physical Abuse by Al-Quan Davis to his daughter, Al-Mira Davis, is FOUNDED.

Al-Mira made disclosures that her father Al-Quan hit her with a belt across her legs to the point of injury. Al-Quan acknowledged hitting Al-Mira with a belt but reported hitting her 5-7 times and Al-Mira indicated he hit her 15-17 times. Al-Mira was able to provide pictures of her legs following this incident. In these photos, there are multiple striations across her shins that are consistent with markings from a belt. Al-Mira reported that it had hurt to walk following this incident and she reported ongoing bruising that was not visible due to the color of her skin but was still painful to the touch days after the incident. Al-Quan did not deny this incident occurring to ODHS, although he repeatedly denied physical discipline to LEA. In speaking with the school, they reported ongoing concerns for Al-Quan's temper and the disclosures that Al-Mira will make. There is a significant pattern of reports with concerns for physical abuse by Al-Quan and he has been educated by the agency about his use of physical discipline crossing the line into abuse. This dispositional finding is supported by the children's disclosures which were corroborated by photographs of the injuries and statements of concern by the child's mother.

Report 3727696 The allegation of Physical Abuse by Al-Quan Davis to his daughter, [REDACTED] is UNABLE TO DETERMINE. (Please note that there was an error in assigning this at screening and that while it states that relationship is mother, it is actually the father).

There is reasonable cause at this point in time to believe that Al-Quan has crossed the line from physical discipline to physical abuse with both of his daughters. The allegations regarding physical abuse to [REDACTED] are historical, and while she reports injury to her eye at the time, there is no current injury to observe. Al-Quan denies the allegation that he hit [REDACTED] with a hanger until it broke and stated that he doesn't have plastic hangers in his house. Al-Quan did not deny that he had slapped [REDACTED] but denied that it was over a singular thing and that it was the result of a build up of events. Al-Quan also reported that this concern regarding [REDACTED] being slapped in the face has already been assessed and documented, although the screener and this worker were unable to find documentation thereof. It is possible that the incident that Al-Quan is referring to is documented in the screening report (and associated assessment) dated 3/24/23, however, the reported circumstances are different. There is also concern that Al-Mira reported [REDACTED] having been hit when attempting to intervene to protect her sister. AshLe' and Al-Mira reported concerns for Physical Abuse to [REDACTED] Al-Quan denied these allegations; [REDACTED] shared the incident of being slapped repeatedly in the face and chose to be done participating in the interview shortly after. The conflicting information and the historical nature of these events leave this allegation Unable to Determine at this time.

The allegation of Neglect by Al-Quan Davis to his daughter Al-Mira Davis is FOUNDED.

It is concerning for abandonment and desertion that Al-Quan left his 12-year-old child under the impression that she was unable to return home and would have nowhere to go to if her mother did not come pick her up. Al-Quan expressed this to his daughter publicly in such a way that the afterschool program was in a position that they needed to involve law enforcement. The reporting party witnessed Al-Quan leave and come back with a suitcase of belongings and 2 bags of clothes that he then left with Al-Mira. It is concerning that rather than allow Al-Mira to return to the home, allow Al-Mira to come home and wait for her mom, or driving Al-Mira to her mother's house; Al-Quan left his daughter with an afterschool program and then had her driven to her mother's home in a police car. The reporting party witnessed Al-Quan tell his daughter as she was getting into the police car that "everyone is going to learn a lesson from this" and expressed concern that he is very much about trying to teach her lessons. It is concerning that AshLe' disclosed that it is not uncommon for her to get messages from her daughter about Al-Quan locking her out of the home and asking her mom to come pick her up. While Al-Quan denies that his door is ever locked, it is concerning that the child has been in a position to believe that she did not have access to a safe shelter and have to seek it independently from another source.

The allegations for Mental Injury by Al-Quan to his daughters, Al-Mira and [REDACTED] are UNABLE TO DETERMINE.

It is highly concerning that both children made disclosures that Al-Quan will enter the bathroom while they are on the toilet and not fully dressed and that Al-Quan's explanation for this is that he believes that they will sit on the toilet to avoid being disciplined and so he enters the bathroom to discipline them regardless. Neither child expressed fear of Al-Quan and both expressed that they do care greatly for their father. It is notable that [REDACTED] became emotional talking about her father and expressed concern for his wellbeing while maintaining her position that she feels safer living with her mom. Additionally, it is concerning for mental injury in the public manner that Al-Quan allowed the incident regarding his frustrations around Al-Mira to occur in front of her teachers as well as her peers as this falls into the category of spurning his child. It is also highly concerning that he continued to allow the public shaming to continue in that the situation was only mitigated by Al-Mira being driven away in a police car. Also concerning is that AshLe' disclosed that Al-Quan treats their coparenting as a win-lose and has communicated to their daughters that if they want to live with her, than they will not see him again.

EXTENT OF ALLEGED ABUSE

Concerns were reported regarding physical abuse to Al-Mira and [REDACTED] by their father, Alquan Davis. The last known incident occurred on 5/18/23 which resulted in a road-rash on Al-Mira's knee caused by being dragged across a parking lot by her father. See additional details in circumstances regarding this incident.

CIRCUMSTANCES OF ALLEGED ABUSE

Per the reporter, AL-Mira reportedly disclosed to a neighbor that her father, Alquan has "beat her with a belt, slapped her in the face, pushed her down, and dragged her across the parking lot" during the evening of 5/18/23. AL-Mira reportedly has road rash on her left knee from when her father was dragging her across the parking lot of their apartment complex. The reporter stated excessive physical discipline is used on both children very frequently. They are both reportedly afraid of going home today (5/19/23). The reporter was unaware of any marks or injuries that [REDACTED] might currently have. [REDACTED] reportedly witnessed the alleged abuse towards her sister yesterday (5/18/23).

The reporter was unaware of any other disciplinary practices.

The reporter stated the children go to an after-school program that is hosted by their apartment complex, so they can stay out of the home, and away from their father, a little longer each day.

Per the reporter, [REDACTED] and Al-Mira are not being sent home from their schools, as the School Resource Officer at West Union Elementary has stated belief it is not safe. Per the reporter, Alquan has not yet been notified about this.

The reporter was unaware of any needs going unmet for the children at this time.

The reporter was unaware of any medical, mental health, or developmental needs for anyone in the family. The reporter was unaware of the family members' functioning.

The reporter was unaware of substance or alcohol use, domestic violence or power and control, cultural considerations.

COMPREHENSIVE ASSESSMENT

Child Functioning

Participant: [REDACTED]	DOB: [REDACTED]
Child Functioning: [REDACTED] is a [REDACTED]-year-old African American female. [REDACTED] is a 7th grader at Poynter middle school where she plays the clarinet and enjoys her math class. [REDACTED] is a TAG student and does really well in school. She says that she enjoys "taking naps", playing volleyball and tennis when not in school. [REDACTED] reports no health concerns, only some weight gain in the recent years. [REDACTED] receives counseling through Options Counseling with counselor Halima Hussein. [REDACTED] reports no substance use or thoughts of self harm.

Participant: Almira A. Davis	DOB: 06/23/2011
Child Functioning: Almira is an 11-year-old African American female. Almira is in 6th grade and enjoys playing the clarinet and likes to play soccer at recess. Almira says that she has no health concerns. Almira receives counseling through Options Counseling with counselor Halima Hussein. Almira does not report any substance use or thoughts of self harm.

Adult Functioning

Adult Functioning:
Alquan is a 44 year-old African American male. Alquan works as a school bus driver and "really enjoys it." Alquan shared that he is diagnosed with ADHD and takes prescribed Strattera for it. He reports that there is no substance use. He says that his mental health is fine but he sometimes struggles parenting his two children on his own.

Participant: Ashle A. Penn	DOB: 02/15/1988
-----------------------------------	------------------------

Adult Functioning:
Alquan reports that he has sporadic contact with Ashle and sometimes he allows additional visitation time with her because "she's their mom."

Ashle did not engage in the assessment and has a pattern and history of not engaging with the agency. The following information is taken from past assessment/ agency knowledge and collaterals.

Previous assessments and ODHS OR-Kids show No ICWA for mother.

OR-Kids case note shows that mother has supervised visits with her son Feliciano at a OHDS branch. She attendance to the visits have been sporadic or no shows. This case has been open in Multnomah County for her son with another man Mr. Berry Washington since 2020. Child is an Out of home plan and they are working on ICPC in WA. It is reported that On February of 2020, just after Feliciano's birthday, the case came to the attention of ODHS due to domestic violence perpetrated by Mr. Washington to Ms. Penn. The children including Ms. Penn's older daughters witnessed the violence

Parental Practices

Participant: Alquan A. Davis	DOB: 09/04/1978
Disciplinary Practices/Knowledge: Alquan reported that he sometimes will "pop" the girls. He reports that popping them on the head is light and spanking is only done with his hand over the clothes, never hard enough to leave marks. This was confirmed by the girls. He will usually take electronics away or send them to their room to calm down and then they talk it out. The girls state that their father will yell and take away all electronics and recently when they talk back/don't listen he will spank them. Al-Mira states that she does not like when he spansks her and she will get hit on the legs, arms, and back. Her sister reports that Al-Mira will move and try to avoid her 'poppin/whoopin' and that is why she gets hit in those places.
Parenting Practices/Knowledge: Alquan shared that he "loves his children to death" and loves being their dad. He says that he wants them to "be happy and do well."

Participant: Ashle A. Penn	DOB: 02/15/1988
Disciplinary Practices/Knowledge: Both girls report little to no discipline occurring in the home and very little rules. Ashle did not engage in the assessment and has a pattern and history of not engaging with the agency.
Parenting Practices/Knowledge: The children report that their mom is a "fun mom" and takes them to do things and spends time with them. Ashle did not engage in the assessment and has a pattern and history of not engaging with the agency.

Extent of the Child Abuse:

On 5/19/23 the hotline received a call of concern for physical abuse to Almira Davis (11) by her father Alquan Davis (44). It was reported that Almira disclosed that Alquan had "beat her with a belt, slapped her in the face, pushed her down, and dragged her across the parking lot." It was reported that Almira had "road rash" on her left knee that was a result of being dragged on the pavement in the parking lot of the apartment building. Almira reported that "she does not feel safe going home." Almira reported that Almira was at Level up and after school club that takes place at their apartment complex when her dad came to pick her up. She says that she had candy in her mouth and he dad asked her to spit it out. She reports that her dad seemed irritated because she didn't go home after school. When they got into the car outside of the clubhouse, Almira reports that her dad "grabbed a belt" from the back seat and hit her a "couple of times on her thighs and legs." She reported She says that her dad then "dragged her out of the car" by her lower left arm. While she was being dragged, Almira reports that her knee was scraped and her shirt started to pull off and she was "only in her bra." Almira reported that Alquan said "get back up, you're embarrassing me." When Almira got back up she reported that Alquan "popped her" and her head hit the ground. She reported that her head hurt, but had no changes in her vision or hearing. She reported that her cheek "feels a little sore" and that her leg "is fine." Almira reported that after she got up from being on the ground, she ran to her friend

Alex's house for help. When Alquan showed up at the house, there was some yelling and screaming but eventually she got back into the car

Alquan reported that he went to pick up the girls from the Level Up program and she was "being difficult" and wouldn't get into the car or follow directions. While she was in the car, Alquan reported that he went back into the clubhouse to talk to the apartment manager for a minute. When he got back out to the car, Alquan said that he had a belt and "hit" her with it a "few times" because she wouldn't listen. Alquan reported that Almira jumped out of the car and started to run away from him and he ran after her, as they were running, they both fell. He reports that Almira ran to her friend Alex's house, where Alquan eventually ended up as well and they continued to yell at each other. Eventually Alquan says that they got back into the car and drove to his friend Nilecce's house. When asked about dragging Almira along the pavement Alquan reported that that never happened and Almira injured her knee from falling when they were running after each other. Alquan described the incident as "embarrassing" and was observed to be remorseful. Alquan admitted that he "overreacted" and was observed to be remorseful regarding the situation.

Alquan reported that its "very challenging" raising two daughters alone and he often struggles with parenting and disciplining his children. Alquan is open to receiving a parent mentor through Greater New Hope and has successfully been referred to them.

██████ did not retell the incident on her own during the interview, she was alongside Almira as she shared the incident and listened and spoke up once in a while. ██████ reported that she agreed with the story Almira told, but she added that she was in the car during the incident and "didn't see very much." ██████ reported that she told her dad to stop and he said "oh, you want a butt spanking too?" Then ██████ reported that she tried to get him to stop and blocked him with no success. She reported that she verbally tried to get Almira back into the car during the incident.

Taren (apartment manager) reported that they observed Almira "screaming bloody murder" while Alquan attempted to get her into the car. They reported that Almira "fell to the ground, throwing a fit" during the incident. Taren reported that this is "outside of the norm" and they observe Almira "not listening to her dad often." Taren reports that Almira "over exaggerated." Taren reported that they saw Alquan with a belt in his hand but did not observe him hitting Almira with it. Taren reported that they saw no marks or bruises on Almira, but did get her a band aid for her knee which was "bleeding a little bit."

CARES interview 5/31/23

Disclosures were made regarding the use of physical discipline in the home towards both children. CARES reported that "the sisters have been in the home with their father for weeks post-violence and a retroactive transition could very likely be more disruptive." "Future contact recommendations can be made by ODHS and this recent physical abuse should be taken into consideration should further concerns for violence arise."

5/19/23 Hillsboro Police Department

Police reported that they "didn't see any injuries on Almira besides a skinned knee, which she said she got earlier in the day." It was reported by LEA that during the escalated incident on 5/19/23, "Almira said once Alquan had finished speaking to the manager, he drove them back nearby their apartment. She said Alquan then tried to open the car door to spank her. Almira was able to get out of the vehicle and ran to Alexander's house . She said that Alquan tried to chase after her, but fell on the ground while trying to do so."

Caseworker shared information regarding a resource for rental support via email <https://caowash.org/programs/housing-stability/renter-support.html>

Alquan accepted services offered through Greater New Hope. It was reported that in person contact was made on 6/13/23 and then another visitation on 6/15/23 The goals for their supports are as follows:

"To assist and educate the father on non-violent and age-appropriate discipline strategies"

"Parental education on managing behaviors with children who have experienced trauma"

"Assist the family in finding energy and long-term bill assistance"

"Maintaining a safe and stable home environment"

Alquan successfully completed Greater New Hope services. He worked with Ashley for the following days; 6/6/23, 6/15/23, 6/20/23, 6/23/23, 6/26/23, 6/30/23. It was reported by Greater New Hope that "Alquan was receptive and eager to learn new strategies and approaches to address his daughter's behaviors and made efforts to set up therapy for himself and the girls. He proactively set up after school support for [REDACTED] and Almira so they had a structured environment until he got home from work. The case was closed once Alquan had proper support when his daughters return home in August."

See associated police reports. Hillsboro police report #23-9448 and the CARES NW evaluations dated 05/31/2023 for further details and information. SPRF documentation uploaded to OR-Kids.

At the close of the assessment, both children were visiting grandma in Las Vegas for the summer.

Circumstances Surrounding the Child Abuse:

Alquan (44), Almira (11), and [REDACTED] all reside in the home in Hillsboro Oregon. There is CW history dating back to 2011 that includes 6 FOUNDED assessments listing Barry Washington as the perpetrator. The most recent CW involvement was unfounded for mental injury and physical abuse with Alquan named as the alleged perpetrator. Alquan and his children receive SNAP and OHP state benefits. There are no reported substance use or mental health concerns in the home. There is no reported history of DV reported. Alquan Davis reports that he struggles with parenting the two girls on his own. He reports that it can be a struggle financially as well. Alquan and his family have limited supports here in Oregon. Alquan has extensive family in New Jersey and Almira's and [REDACTED] mother has family in Las Vegas. There are no cultural considerations to take into account. Alquan, Almira, and [REDACTED] were all cooperative and engaged throughout the assessment process. Per OVERS Alquan is listed as the father to Almira and there is no record for [REDACTED] Per eCourts there are two closed violations reported one from 2026 and one from 2021.

Alquan reports that he has sole custody of the girls but that Ashle is allowed to have 2 hour visits one day per week. Alquan says that he often allows the girls to go see her more often and he says that Ashle will sometimes "just show up" and take them out without his consent. He says that he would like to just follow the court order regarding visits, but he wants the girls to see their mom more often because "she's their mom and they need to be around her." Alquan does the daily parenting with the girls while Ashle gets them sporadically and gets to just enjoy her time with them. There is little to no discipline occurring in Ashle's home and the girls describe it as "fun" and they enjoy being there. Alquan reports that the girls are very disrespectful towards him and do not follow his directions/rules. He says that he struggles with getting them to listen or do chores around the house because "they just won't help out." He reports that the dynamic between him and Ashle creates turmoil as far as parenting, in that he tries to hold the girls accountable and give them rules and structure, but he says when they return from visits with mom, they are back to their disrespectful ways.

Ashle lost custody of the girls at the end of 2019 due to an extensive domestic violence relationship between herself and Barry Washington. Mr. Washington's power and control over Ashle is so extreme Ashle has been unable to recognize or believe that domestic violence affected the children. There are concerns that Ashle is still being manipulated and controlled by her perpetrator, Barry Washington and has been unsuccessful in completing a safe exit plan and has been unable to safely stay away from Barry. Ashle has a history of sporadic engagement with the agency. There have been noted concerns for her mental health but unknown if there are any formal diagnosis. Her current employment or work status is unknown. Currently substance use is unknown however Ashle was arrested for DUII in 2012. During assessment dated 11/14/2019 it was noted that Ashley recreationally used cocaine and methamphetamines. It was also believed that Ashle is a heavy cannabis user.

Ashle's youngest child remains in ODHS custody. The agency has continued to work with Ashle however the safety threats identified for her youngest child have not been entirely mitigated. While we do have concerns about the severe DV history between Ashle and Barry and Ashle's ability to keep Barry away from the kids, we have no evidence that shows that Barry currently has any contact with the children.

Ashle doesn't view her behavior as a risk and she doesn't understand why Alquan has the girls and she doesn't. The girls are doing exactly what she tells them to do, they undermine Alquan's authority as a parent. Alquan doesn't follow his custody agreement and often allows more contact with Ashle than court ordered, he believes that the girls should be able to see their mother. Alquan allows this even knowing that Barry is a safety concern. Alquan was observed to have very little authority as a parent, the girls were observed speak rudely to him and disregard his expectations throughout the assessment process. The girls will often exaggerate circumstances and situations in an effort to be returned to their mother's care; both would prefer to live with their mother. Following situations with their father, both would almost immediately ask if they can go live with their mother now.

SAFETY THREAT IDENTIFICATION

Impending Danger Safety Threat:	One or both parents' or caregivers' behavior is impulsive or they will not/cannot control their behavior.
Threat Identified:	No
Vulnerable Child(ren):
Narrative: OBSERVABLE: MET While Almira made concerning allegations regarding physical abuse by her father, there was no information gathered or disclosures made that either child was unsafe. Alquan admitted to using physical discipline with his children, but he reported that he never leaves a mark. Almira's behaviors are challenging and she is described as being "dramatic" and often "over reacts." Her behaviors will escalate the situation and cause Alquan to lose his patience and react aggressively towards the children. OUT OF CONTROL: NOT MET The family's circumstances are not out of control. While Alquan describes that managing Almira's behaviors is challenging, they are managing. Alquan is aware that he overreacts and doesn't think clearly when dealing with his children during escalated situations. He asked for and received parenting supports through Greater New Hope that at the close of the assessment, he and his children are actively participating in. IMMINENT: NOT MET No information was gathered to indicate that Alquan's use of physical discipline has resulted in physical abuse to either child. Alquan is engaged in parenting supports to address his parenting skills so he can learn to discipline appropriately. Alquan is going to get her into counseling upon her return from Las Vegas this summer to address her behavioral and emotional needs. VUNERABLE: MET Both children are vulnerable and they both depend on their father to meet their basic needs and ensure their safety. Almira is especially vulnerable due to her behavioral needs placing her at a higher risk than her sibling. SEVERITY: NOT MET While Almira stated that she has experienced pain and injury from being disciplined by her father, no information was gathered to indicate that Almira has been severely harmed or was at risk for severe harm in the future.

CPS ASSESSMENT CONCLUSION

Assessment Allegations:

Alleged Victim	Alleged Perpetrator	AP Relationship to Victim	Allegation	Disposition	Karly's Law	Medical Neglect	Fatality
[REDACTED]	Alquan A. Davis	Father	Physical Abuse	Unfounded	☐	☐	☐
Almira A. Davis	Alquan A. Davis	Father	Physical Abuse	Unfounded	☐	☐	☐

Justification for the Disposition:

The allegation of physical abuse to Almira Davis (11) and [REDACTED] by their father Alquan Davis (44) is UNFOUNDED.

While Almira made concerning allegations regarding physical abuse by her father, no information was gathered or disclosures made that either child was unsafe in their father's care or that the discipline he utilized was excessive or abusive. Mr. Davis has acknowledged sometimes making poor parenting choices, which have at times contributed to, or exacerbated incidents with his children. He has acknowledged physical discipline has not been successful and has actively reached out for assistance in learning new parenting and disciplinary strategies to more appropriately respond to his daughters. While these incidents have been at times chaotic, and father's responses inappropriate, no information has been gathered to indicate that father's behavior or responses have reached a threshold or severity level consistent with physical abuse.

Service Application Signed: ☐

Child Safety Decision:

Child	DOB	Child Safety Decision
[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	Safe
Almira A. Davis	06/23/2011	Safe

Basis for Child Safety Decision:

While safety threat #3 was considered it was not operating at the close of the assessment. While disclosures were made regarding the use of physical discipline in the home by Alquan, there was no information gathered that either child was unsafe in the care of their father. Alquan struggles with parenting appropriately when Almira's behaviors become escalated and he is aware that he needs supports regarding appropriate disciplinary practices within the home. At the close of the assessment, Alquan and his children were actively participating in parenting/family supports through Greater New Hope.

OVERS

Per OVERS, Ashle Penn and Alquan Davis are parents to Al Mira Daivs and [REDACTED]

EXTENT OF ALLEGED ABUSE

It was reported that on the morning of 2/21/2023 that Al-Mira Davis (11) was hit on her butt and her legs by her father, Alquan Davis (44) and had a spiral notebook thrown at her which all occurred at their house. Al-Mira's sister, Amayia Davis [REDACTED] was punched in her breast and put into a headlock by Alquan who proceeded to spank her butt. Al-Mira is reported to have a small black spot on her left thigh and no other marks or bruises and was not in any physical pain and it is unknown per reporter is Amayia sustained any injuries but Amayia did say she was hurting. Both girls are afraid to go home.

CIRCUMSTANCES OF ALLEGED ABUSE

It was reported on 2/21/2023 that Al-Mira Davis told an adult that she needed to report something, which is common for her per reporter. She said that she missed the bus this morning and this is her father's, Alquan Daivs, day off. Al-Mira and her sister, Amayia Davis, share a room together. Alquan came into their room and he told both children to get changed and ready for school. Al-Mira is reported to have changed three times this morning. Amayia only had a bra on per reporter. Alquan started telling the children they needed to clean their room which is when Al-Mira went into the bathroom and came back out with no shirt on. Alquan proceeded to throw a spiral notebook at Al-Mira and a floor cushion. The notebook made contact with Al-Mira, reporter is not sure where.

Per reporter, Alquan started spanking Al-Mira and he was trying to get to spank her butt but primarily hit her legs as she was moving around. Amayia was trying to pull Alquan away and he was reported to only be in his boxers which Amayia tore off in the process of pulling him back. Alquan then turned to Amayia and punched her in her breast, put her into a headlock and started to spank her. Reporter had no information on Amayia's abuse or if she sustained any injuries from Alquan.

Alquan is reported to have started breaking objects in the room and ripping them down and throwing them away after spanking the children.

It is reported that Alquan was on the phone with, who Amayia and Al-Mira call, "Miss Mee-Mee" who is Alquan's ex-girlfriend while Alquan was hitting the children. When Alquan explained to her what was occurring she is reported to have said "dang, Alquan" to which he responded that "they need to learn that they do not disrespect me."

Alquan is also reported to have told the children, "I don't care, go tell your counselor at school" and also that "you girls like being hit, stop being traumatized."

Al-Mira was reported to be wearing tight clothes and reporter did not see marks or bruises on her. Reporter asked Al-Mira to go into the restroom by herself and see if she had any marks or bruises. Al-Mira is reported to have a little black spot on her left thigh. Al-Mira did not say she was in physical pain but was emotionally upset. Al-Mira was teary eyed but also hopeless that things will get better per reporter. Al-Mira wants to go to a homework club and then a friend's house to avoid to going home.

Al-Mira is reported to not want to go back home and doesn't feel safe going back.

Al-Mira and [REDACTED] do not have any developmental disabilities or delays.

No cultural considerations for the family per reporter.

When asked about domestic violence and power and control dynamics in the home, Alquan is reported to having cameras in the home and takes the children stuff away. There are cameras in the main living area put up as supervision of the children when Alquan is not present. Alquan has been taking the children's phones away and they do not have a house phone. Per reporter, the case worker told Alquan that he cannot take the children's phone away, but he is reported to do it anyway.

Contacted supervisor Sean Giles who said they do not have any further information to add to the reporter and that "The children have been interviewed regarding similar concerns and they have always denied this occurring, despite saying things to RPs. "

Information below was taken by screener Brennan Rattay on 2/21/2023 @ 8:33 AM: ***

Alquan reportedly gave a look to [REDACTED] and stated, "I wouldn't need to if you didn't act that way." Alquan was able to calm down and privately [REDACTED] reported she and her sister were not out of bed by 7:00 a.m. this morning. Alquan came into their room and told the girls to get ready, [REDACTED] was covering herself with just her arm as she had not yet grabbed a bra or shirt. Alquan reportedly removed all the clothing Ashle has bought the girls and each girl only has 5 pants and 5 shirts. [REDACTED] was given a shirt by Alquan who then observed Almira was not yet ready and proceeded to spank her with an open hand. [REDACTED] reported he hit Almira everywhere all over body, unknown if there are injuries. [REDACTED] intervened and was punched in the forearm by her father (no injuries observed but [REDACTED] reported it was still hurting), he also put [REDACTED] in a headlock ([REDACTED] reported see was not choked) but had been pushed to the ground. [REDACTED] does not want to go home after school and fearful of her father.

Alquan reported he has sole custody of the girls, and their mother is not to have contact with [REDACTED] or Almira. Alquan presented as angry and visibly upset while asking that there not be contact by the girls and Ashle. Alquan called a friend, NeeNee who told him he was the one doing this to the children and has an unhealthy relationship with his daughters. When Alquan was talking to NeeNee, Alquan told [REDACTED] to "shut up." NeeNee reportedly had told the children they are trying to get removed from their father, get him in trouble and placed in foster care.

Alquan is reported to be very controlling and often observed to be upset or angry. He is employed (unknown where), he does not attend school events or functions.

Ashle reportedly resides close to the family and the children have contact with her (unknown how often or what the contact looks like).

Unknown to reporter cultural considerations, power and control, domestic violence, or adult functioning, or familial supports.

Neither child is on an IEP and no behavioral concerns. [REDACTED] is described as a really sweet girl.

Information below was taken by screener Meghan Kleineck on 2/21/2023 @ 12:06 PM: ***

[REDACTED] reportedly disclosed she had an argument this morning with her father, AlQuan, after he learned [REDACTED] and Al-Mira left technology (a cell phone and an iPad) at their mother's home during their last visit. They reportedly left the technology there purposely to ensure Ashle can have contact with them. The reporter stated [REDACTED] ended up getting spanked "to the point when her dad got all sweaty and winded." He also spanked Al-Mira. The reporter stated the [REDACTED] was also shoved and had her arm smacked when trying to intervene to stop her father from spanking Al-Mira. The reporter stated the spanking hurt, but the reporter was unaware of severity. The reporter stated no knowledge of marks or injuries for either child. The reporter stated both [REDACTED] and Al-Mira "are used to this type of punishment." The reporter stated [REDACTED] was "not happy" while disclosing.

The reporter was unaware of any fear or anxiety but stated [REDACTED] would rather be with her mother than her father because her father's home "is not a pleasant environment." The reporter stated [REDACTED] is afraid of being separated from her sister, so she is hesitant in disclosing concerns.

When asked about other disciplinary practices, the reporter stated AlQuan uses threats. Example: "Go ahead and tell your counselor what's happening, you'll just get taken away." He also gives the children extra chores.

Per the reporter, [REDACTED] seems like an average seventh grader, but she reportedly tends to get more upset over smaller concerns (reactions you'd expect from an elementary student). She is reportedly quick to minimize past troubles, and she is not trusting of adults. Per the reporter, [REDACTED] would benefit from counseling.

The reporter was unaware of Al-Mira's functioning.

The reporter was unaware of AlQuan's functioning or daily schedule.

The reporter stated Ashle has had a long history of being financially unstable.

The reporter was unaware of substance or alcohol use, domestic violence or power and control, mental health, or cultural considerations.

HISTORY REVIEW

Per history review, this information has not been previously reported or assessed.

Pending report from 2/10/2023 documents Alquan trying to hit Al-Mira with a belt but not follow through because she ran away. Alquan threatened that he would "get her later." Alquan reportedly brings [REDACTED] down, talks negatively about her weight, and tells [REDACTED] to stay in her place because she is a child.

Pending report from 1/4/2023 documents Alquan hitting Amayia hard enough that it caused a black eye. Report documents the girls claiming that Alquan is always throwing things at them.

Pending report from 12/15/2022 documents Al-Mira being fearful to go home because Alquan might hit her and that he uses his hand to slap her across the face and spansks her with a belt as well.

Ashle & AlQuian are parents to Al Mira and [REDACTED] No additional children found for either parent

EXTENT OF ALLEGED ABUSE

Concerns for Al Mira Davis and [REDACTED] A Davis in the care of their father Alquan A Davis. Al Mira disclosed that last night/this morning around 1 or 2 am their father came into their room upset about the girl's not doing things around the house. It's reported that [REDACTED] made a sarcastic comment to Alquan which resulted in him slapping her. There was then ongoing comments made by [REDACTED] and ongoing repeated slapping that went back and fourth for about 3 minutes and Alquan repeatedly slapping [REDACTED] It's reported that this resulted in [REDACTED] eye looking bloodshot and like it was going to bleed. Al Mira told her father that she was going to make a report and she indicated he "emotionally manipulated" her by telling her they will just separate the girls into different homes, which is their biggest concern. Al Mira indicated being scared and does not want go home from school today.

CIRCUMSTANCES OF ALLEGED ABUSE

It's reported that in the middle of the night around 1 or 2 am this morning Dad came into the girl's room and woke them up. Al Mira stated that he threw wet clothes on the floor and was mad at them as they hadn't done laundry and put things away. Reporter states that [REDACTED] was sarcastic which resulted in [REDACTED] beng repeatedly slapped in the face by her dad. Her making comments and him slapping her went back and fourth for about 3 minutes. Her eye looked bloodshot and like it was going to bleed afterwards. Al Mira reports that [REDACTED] was trying not to cry when this happened and didn't really want to talk. Made them put things away and take out the trash. He is emotionally manipulating me. Al Mira told them that she was going to make the report to someone at school and he said that they are just going to separate them into different homes. It's reported that this is the children's biggest concern that they will be separated. It's reported that there have been ongoing concerns of dad using physical discipline in the home. There is no information that dad was under the influence or any substances. Reporter is not aware of any substance use in the home.

Al Mira indicated that she was scared and was tired. She is tired this morning and does not want to go home. It's reported in the past she has been the one who dad has gotten physical with. She is very worried about her sister.

No cultural considerations for the family per reporter.

Reporter believes that there is a history of domestic violence that has already been reported to child welfare. It's reported that mom is not in the home at this time. Dad controls when the girls can see and talk to her and will use this as a form of discipline.

Screener spoke with CPS Worker Schuronda Boston who did not appear aware of this new incident but expressed ongoing concerns of physical discipline in the home as well as custody concerns where mom reminds the girls they don't have to listen to their father and to tell people at school. It's reported that the circumstances in this report around using sarcasm and Al Mira expressing fear and concern for her sister fit the typical pattern of concerns for this family. Mom has another child who is out of her care.

Reporter is not aware of any child functioning concerns. Their school has tried to get them into counselling. Dad has been given resources to make appointments and this has not happened.

Reporter believes that dad is a school bus driver for Lake Oswego and does like gig work delivering food through like Uber or something similar.

HISTORY REVIEW

COMPREHENSIVE ASSESSMENT

Child Functioning

Participant: [REDACTED]

DOB: [REDACTED]

Child Functioning:

[REDACTED] attends Poynter Middle School. She is not on an IEP or 504 plan. The school reports that her attendance is good but there are several times that she will be late. It is reported that these are the times that her mother will bring them to school.

She reports that she wants to live with her maternal grandmother in Las Vegas. She states that she is fun and likes to take them to do things. She states that in Las Vegas her mother has lots of family and they love it there.

[REDACTED] reports that her parents talk about their issues with her and her sister. She knows why they are not together and that their father reports their mother cheated on him with someone else. She says that her father told her that she does not need to worry about it as it is adult issues but she has heard a lot about everything.

She reports that she is sarcastic, has a smart mouth and will talk back to her father knowing that he has given her warnings and told her she needed to stop. She understands why she shouldn't but she can't help it. She knows that sometimes he is already upset and her talking back makes it worse.

No mental health or D/A concerns

Participant: Almira A. Davis

DOB: 06/23/2011

Child Functioning:

Al-Mira attends West Union Elementary. She is not on an IEP or 504 plan. The school reports that her attendance is good but there are several times that she will be late. It is reported that these are the times that her mother will bring them to school. School reports that she will often come in hungry and tired.

She reports not wanting to live with her father anymore as he is mean. She states that all he wants them to do is clean, stay home and do nothing. She reports that he is never home and never has time for them or money to do things. She feels that he is tired all the time and spends more time with his girlfriend/friends than them.

She reports that when they get in trouble all he does is yell and "pop" them. She has been spanked on her legs and back. When asked what the spanking looked like, she reported that she was scared that it would hurt so she would move and cry. She reports that the spanking happened with his open hand on her bottom.

She reports that he does not cook or provide hot meals for them. (CW noted that the home had an over abundance of food they can make. Father and sister reported that Al-Mira is a picky eater and will refuse to eat sometimes). She states that she would rather live in Las Vegas with her grandmother. She states that she is the only person that is there for them all the time. She cooks for them and teaches them new things. She thinks that her mother should move back to Las Vegas as well so that they can all live together and she would have short visits with her father.

She states that she and her mother have talked about their relationship and why it ended. Al-Mira states that her father was mean to her mother and her mother always had to stand up for herself. She did not report witnessing DV but hearing the parents fight often.

She reports that her mother is more caring and will take them places and buy them things.

No mental health or D/A concerns

Adult Functioning

Participant: Ashle A. Penn

DOB: 02/15/1988

Adult Functioning:

An attempt was made to contact Ashle via telephone for interview but her current listed number was not operational.

Ashle is reported to be houseless, couch surfing and/or sleeping at their Aunt Pumpkin's house. The children's school does not have regular contact with mother for the girls education.

Father reports that he has sporadic contact with their mother and sometimes the girls will "misplace or lose their phones" after spending time with their mother. He states that during those times he was told by the girls recently that they leave phones with their mother so that she has a way to contact them. This irates the father as the phone is for them to contact him and anyone if they are unsafe.

Previous assessments and ODHS OR-Kids show No ICWA for mother.

OR-Kids case note shows that mother has supervised visits with her son Feliciano at a OHDS branch. She attendance to the visits have been sporadic or no shows. This case has been open in Multnomah County for her son with another man Mr. Berry Washington since 2020. Child is an Out of home plan and they are working on ICPC in WA. It is reported that On February of 2020, just after Feliciano's birthday, the case came to the attention of ODHS due to domestic violence perpetrated by Mr. Washington to Ms. Penn. The children including Ms. Penn's older daughters witnessed the violence.

Participant: Alquan A. Davis

Adult Functioning:

Mr. Davis is employed as a School Bus Driver and he used to work for UPS but was injured on the job and needed knee surgery. He reports that he has sole custody of the children. He reports that in the home it is just him and his girls, although he does have a girlfriend but she has her own place. He reports that she has talked about moving state and he is considering moving with her or back with family. He states that he feels that the girls are getting older and need steady positive female role models.

No D/A or mental health concerns.

Father reports No ICWA.

Parental Practices

Participant: Alquan A. Davis

DOB: 09/04/1978

Disciplinary Practices/Knowledge:

Alquan did not use any form of physical harm due to the physical abuse the girls have witnessed and been subjected to with their mother but he has resorted to "popping" them. He reports that popping them on the head is light and spanking is only done with his hand over the clothes, never hard enough to leave marks. This was confirmed by the girls.

He will usually take electronics away or send them to their room to calm down and then they talk it out.

The girls state that their father will yell and take away all electronics and recently when they talk back/don't listen he will spank them. Al-Mira states that she does not like when he spansks her and she will get hit on the legs, arms, and back. Her sister reports that Al-Mira will move and try to avoid her "Poppin/whoopin" and that is why she gets hit in those places.

Mr. Davis states that Al-Mira does move when he tries to discipline her and that is why he only does it when absolutely necessary. This is after talking, taking away items, sending her to her room.

Parenting Practices/Knowledge:

Alquan states that being a single father is hard with two strong, smart and opinionated young women. He reports that they have had a hard time with their mother no longer being with them. He states that their mother while in the house was verbally and sometimes emotionally abusive towards him. He states that he had his own issues with yelling. He wants to move back to be close with his family so that he will have familial support. He fears that trying to provide has left them too much alone time and with the inconsistency and negative talk about him from their mother they are being pulled in two different directions. He has no problem with their mother wanting to be involved in their life he just wants her to show them positive things and get herself help. Now to the girls he looks like he does not want them to have interaction with her or is trying to keep them from her.

He would like the girls to grow up and be good women. He wants them to have anything they want but also wants them to know right from wrong and have good values. He knows that they need a woman in their lives and he feels that more contact with his family will provide that.

He states that the girls want to be with their mother because she allows them more freedom and they see it as fun "amusement park fun" He reports that they can do whatever they want with their mother and she does not have rules or make them do anything. He states that is one of the reasons she is no longer allowed in the home as they will eat, change clothes, and leave things out; all over the place. He would then have to be the bad guy and tell the girls that they had to clean up their mess and it would be an argument and end with the girls mad at him because he is a "neat freak" It should be noted during the home walk though there were several items littered though out the floor, turned over clothes containers in the living room, children's room had clothes all over the floor and overflowing from the closet. The home was not in an order that most would consider "neat freak" clean.

Participant: Ashle A. Penn

DOB: 02/15/1988

Disciplinary Practices/Knowledge:

Ashle Penn is not playing an active parenting role, therefore does not discipline the children.

The girls state that when their father goes to work their mother will come over sometimes because she knows that the father is gone and can't return due to working. They state that they will eat breakfast, talk about things, and sometimes she will take them to school.

They report that both parents talk about each other in a negative manor sometimes. [REDACTED] states that their mother tells them that their father should not spank them or talk to them the way he used to talk to her. She reports talking back to her father because she feels that she has responses to his comments but they are not always said in a respectful tone or manner.

They report that when they are with their mother she allows them more freedom to do things and go places. Their father tries to keep more tabs on them and won't let them go to a lot of places.

Parenting Practices/Knowledge:

Ashle Penn is not playing an active parenting role. She continues to have weekly visits with her son at an ODHS branch or in the community.

Looking at ODHS history shows that mother has another son with a different man and they are going through the court system to regain custody. Her son is currently in out of home care with visits with his parents. It is reported that they have scheduled visits in Multnomah county. She has missed several visits and communication has been inconsistent.

Extent of the Child Abuse:

Several calls were called into ORCAH on 2.21.23 concerning the safety and welfare of Al-Mira (11) and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. It was reported that on the morning of 2/21/2023 that Al-Mira Davis (11) was hit on her butt and her legs by her father, Alquan Davis (44) and had a spiral notebook thrown at her which all occurred at their house. Al-Mira's sister, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was punched in her breast and put into a headlock by Alquan who proceeded to spank her butt. Al-Mira is reported to have a small black spot on her left thigh and no other marks or bruises and was not in any physical pain and it is unknown per reporter is Amayia sustained any injuries, but Amayia did say she was hurting. It is reported that both girls are afraid to go home.

This information was gathered from previous assessment IR 2.10.23 as dates were close and not much has changed in the short time between assessments.

This writer received a phone call from Hillsboro Police Detective D. Tobin. He stated that he was assigned the new IR and that he had just finished interviewing Al-Mira (11) at school and was at the Poynter Middle School to talk to Amayia. He stated that he would wait for CW as I was on the way to Amayia's school. I arrived at Poynter School and interviewed Amayia with Hillsboro Police.

Later I talked to sister Al-Mira at school. Below is a comprehensive summary from the girls and father.

Detective D. Tobin stated Al-Mira. He reports that her statements seem consistent but also like children want to live with mother do to not being held accountable. It's reported that mother is the "Fun parent". I informed him that father reports mother shows up sporadically when she wants to see the children. He reports that he feels that the children don't have rules when they are with their mother because she does not take them to where she is staying or are at someone's house for a short time. He reported that his ex has a son in ODHS custody due to violence in the home, so he is concerned when they go with her.

██████ states that they woke up late and her father was already upset. She stated that he said he had tried to wake them up a couple times before. When they got up, he asked for their phones and Ipad. ██████ states that he became more upset when they told him they did not know where they were and may have lost them.

She reports that he started yelling that they were irresponsible and that they probably gave it to their mother as this is something they do so that mother has a way to contact people or them when she wants. When asked why he would say this she stated that Friday they left his home with their mother.

██████ reports that they were at home Friday after school and their mother came over and told them to come with her, they were going to spend time together. She reports that she told her sister that they were going to get into trouble if they went with her as their father told them not to and he could see on the cameras. She states that her sister wanted to go and grabbed her coat to leave. Her mother told her that she had texted their father and asked if they could come with her. She was unsure of if her father said yes but went with her mother anyway. She reports that her father had previously told them that if he does not respond to the text, it is a no they cannot go. They went and spent the weekend and assumed their mother talked to their father.

She states that during this incident her father was also upset at them for what they decided to wear for the day. She states that he threw away Al-Mira's pants because he stated she could not wear them to school. It is reported that they were "Sponge Bob Square Pants" PJ's. ██████ reports that he did not want her sister going to school like that and she needed to change.

This morning she reports getting up while he was yelling and going to the bathroom while her father was talking and hearing Al-Mira crying because he was yelling. ██████ states that they both were talking under their breath while getting ready and their father must have heard them because he told Al-Mira "say actually again" Apparently, she was saying something that their father got wrong and was reported to be saying "actually that's not true, or Actually our room is dirty because..." She reportedly tried to hide or get away from her father by crawling away from him on the bed. He dragged her off the bed and attempted to spank her.

██████ states that during this time her father was only wearing boxers and shorts. She says that her sister was resisting her spanking by moving and trying to get away. Amayia reports that she grabbed her father's boxers to get him to stop him from spanking her sister. When she touched him, she stated "Wow, gross your sweating already" Amayia reports that her father heard this and became more upset. It's reported he turned and ended up punching her in her arm. Not hard enough to leave a bruise but hard enough that it stung for a couple of seconds. CW asked her if she was put in a head lock or choke hold by her father and she states that she was not, but he did put his arm around her shoulder area and tell her to stop and she continued to sass and says things anyway.

I spoke with Al-Mira and asked to see her mark on her leg. She refused and stated that she did not want to show me, and she reported she was not in pain. I asked her how she thinks she got the mark/bruise and she stated that she thinks it's from this morning when she was getting spanked by her father. She stated that she was wearing the PJ's and her father told her she couldn't wear them to school. Al-Mira didn't want to change and said as much to her father, and he told her watch her mouth. She reports that she had already changed once before.

Al-Mira states that her father was angry as soon as he woke them up. She reports that her father was upset because they did not have their phones or Ipad and that they were with their mother without permission all weekend. She states that he just came in the room one time and told them to get up and once they did not, he became angrier.

She states that he started throwing things around in their room telling them they were ungrateful and irresponsible. She was saying "actually" to the things that he was getting wrong, but he would not listen.

Al-Mira reports that her father came out of the bathroom with no shirt on and threw a notebook on the floor and at her; she was sitting on the floor looking for something to wear. He told them that since they can't clean their room or keep it clean, he was taking their clothes. He told them to pick out 5 pair of clothes because he was taking the rest. While he was saying this, he was going around their room ripping down decorations and throwing them away.

After the incident the girls report that they all left for the school as they had already missed the bus and their father was not going to work today. She reports that he went to [REDACTED] school. She thinks that he talked to her school as well. It was reported that while in front of the school father called his friend Ms. Shadria (spelling/last name unknown) It is reported that he told her what happened and she stated to him that he needed to calm down and think of different ways to discipline the children as his way is not working. Its also reported by the girls that she is teaching Mr. Davis and children how to talk to each other and give respect and listen to/understand their perspective.

I contacted Mr. Davis at his home with Officer Tobin. He reports that he did not go to work today as he was sick. He reported that he was upset all weekend as he saw on the camara that the girls left with their mother. He did not receive a call from mom or the girls, so when he called and tried to contact them no one returned his call. They returned to the home Sunday evening and acted like he had no right to be concerned about where they were and who they were with. He states that the girls told him that their mother text him about getting the girls, but he stated that never happened.

Mr. Davis reports that he was not feeling well and decided that it was best if he stayed home from work. He reports that he had tried to get the girls up 1-2 times before he became angry that they were not moving, and they were running late. He also became angry because they were saying disparaging things about him and the house. I noted that the girl's room was still covered in clothes and other miscellaneous items littered the floor. I could see where Mr. Davis had a small trash can in the hall with decorations from the girl's room. He stated that he was not going to keep them in the trash, but he wanted them to think that he was so that they would take him seriously, stop mocking and sassing him. He reports that they didn't care they were mad at him for telling them they needed to clean up.

Mr. Davis states that he told them to pick out 5 shirts, pants, everything that they need and if they could keep the room clean, he would give more back over time. He states that the children have no respect for him and that they learned the behavior watching their mother treat him and talk to him that way. He reports that she was verbally and emotionally abusive. He stated that he does not like to say that about their mother, but he can no longer allow her to make him out to be the bad guy. He understands that he is not doing everything right all the time, but he is trying his best. He has changed some of his actions due to ODHS interaction in the past and taking a recommended parenting class. He feels like he is barely holding everything together alone and would still like to move where he has a support system.

He reports that he did talk to his female friend about the girls and she told him he needed to change how he was interacting with the girls because they are pulled between him and their mother. They are getting 2 different rules and in/appropriate ways to talk to him not only from mother but who ever she is hanging around at the time. He has not taken the parenting class in almost 2 years and thinks that he needs to go back as he has slacked and does not remember all the good information that they gave him.

He reports that he took the girls to school and talked to the school about not allowing their mother to have contact as he had full custody. He was upset due to all the things that happened during the weekend, this morning and him being sick. By the time he got to the school he had not calmed down. He reported later in a phone call that he felt that the school staff were looking at him like he was a bad person, and they were short with him. He reports that he does not attend school functions because he works 2 jobs.

Mr. Davis states that he has no problem with the girls telling the school or an adult what happens at the house as he feels that they need to have people to talk to. He is doing his best and does not refuse any help a professional can give him. He is in new territory raising 2 girls and his past is not the best, so he is trying. Their mother has been telling the girls since he has had them that she will get them back, they will go home soon for good, he is bad because he is gone all the time with his girlfriend not working, he does not cook enough for them or have enough food they like and he is a bad father for making them clean the home.

He spoke with Officer Tobin regarding legal processes. Officer Tobin advised that he look on the internet or go down to the courthouse and ask questions before he leaves state as in his system, he has not found legal documentation stating that he has full custody. Officer Tobin advised him to do his diligence before leaving as he does not want to encounter legal troubles unnecessarily. He also talked to Mr. Davis about different wording and techniques for discipline as Mr. Davis uses the words "Beat, whop" when talking about spanking the children. Though out the interview Mr. Davis appeared concerned and agitated with Ms. Penn (Ashle) taking the children without permission. He knows that he can't do anything about it as he is working and that is when she comes to the home. He reports that he is going to get his legal rights complete and save money to move. He states that Ashle can have visits but she needs to be respectful and talk to him about taking the children.

On 3.24.23 Another call of concern for Al-Mira Davis and [REDACTED] A Davis in the care of their father Alquan A Davis. Al-Mira disclosed that last night/this morning around 1 or 2 am their father came into their room upset about the girl's not doing things around the house. It's reported that [REDACTED] made a sarcastic comment to Alquan which resulted in him slapping her. There was then ongoing comments made by [REDACTED] and ongoing repeated slapping that went back and fourth for about 3 minutes and Alquan repeatedly slapping [REDACTED] It's reported that this resulted in [REDACTED] eye looking bloodshot and like it was going to bleed. Al Mira told her father that she was going to make a report and she indicated he "emotionally manipulated" her by telling her they will just separate the girls into different homes, which is their biggest concern. Al-Mira indicated being scared and does not want to go home from school today.

I made contact with [REDACTED] at J.W Poynter Middle School. She reports that last night she went to sleep after cleaning up and told her sister before that she needed to clean up before going to bed or their father would be upset. She states that he had told them reputedly to clean up and she did not want him to be mad at her so she made sure to clean up.

CW asked why her sister did not clean up and she reports that her sister is defiant and then cries when she gets in trouble. She states that she tried to talk to her sister about it but her sister seems to not care what their father says and does what she wants. She gave the example of their after school activity where Al-Mira wanted to stay later but knew that their father wanted them home at 5. She says that her sister kept saying she wanted to stay knowing that they had not cleaned up as he asked. [REDACTED] gave her sister their father's number and began to walk home. She states that her sister did not reach her father and caught up with her. Then instead of walking with her sister to the house Al-Mira decided to walk a different path that took longer. She reports her sister knew that their father was going to tell her "no but, I don't; like she wanted to press his buttons to make him upset when she ([REDACTED]) had already reminded her what their father expected".

[REDACTED] states that her father woke them up really early and stated "You guys cant leave the house like this, you have to clean up" She reports that she told her father "I cleaned the room" and went to the bathroom. She states that she could hear her father talking and asking her sister questions.

[REDACTED] reports that at some point her father came into the bathroom and asked her (while she was using the toilet) if she wore his socks. She reports that she told him that she did not and he kept insisting that she did. During this exchange she reports that he told her "Who are you talking to" as she was telling him "I didn't wear your socks; I'm talking to you" He told her that was sassing him and "smacked" her. I asked her what the smack looked like and she stated that he swung back (not far) and had some momentum. Her face did not turn to the side from the smack (open handed/looking at her it is the RT side of face). She stated that she did not cry but it hurt. She reported that she was hit 7-8 times. She reported that she was not hurting now nor was she afraid to go home after school.

In an interview with Al-Mira she stated that her father woke them up early in the morning and was yelling and throwing things. She said that he was upset about chores not being done. She states that she started cleaning up. She states that she heard her father go and talk to her sister about socks or something but she is not sure. She states that she heard them argue and him smack her. She states that her sister's eye was red.

She states that she would rather live with her mother because she does not yell or make them do everything. She thinks that her father is just unhappy having them with him and he does not spend enough time with them. She states that they always have to make their own food.

On 3.28.23 Mr. Davis states that he did in fact wake the children up early as they were supposed to clean up the house yet again. He states that this is something that happens all the time. He states that he has to tell them the time that they have to clean up after themselves and they don't. He understands that it is hard for them to clean and keep it clean as they are children but the mess that they make is ridiculous and they should clean up but waking them up that early was not a good idea. At the time he was upset and did not handle it well.

He states that he did not "smack" his daughter but he did tap her in the mouth when she sassied him. He recognizes that he needs to continue to work on his discipline and reactions to their attitude. He thought that he would only need to attend a couple of classes and that should do it but he realizes that it takes daily work and not having support is hindering the girls and him. He is still considering moving so he is saving money and talking with family.

Circumstances Surrounding the Child Abuse:

There have been ongoing concerns of excessive discipline to the children by their father. Mr. Davis is a single parent working 2 jobs to support the family. He reports difficulty with the girl's mother Ashle. They have been separated for several years and have different co-parenting styles. Father has recently gotten the children in his care as mother has been in a DV relationship and her son was removed from her care. He stated that this happened in 2019-2020.

There relationship was emotionally and verbally abusive. He reports that his upbringing was rough, and he was abused by adults in the home. He is trying to learn differently know that he knows there are supports for fathers. He is looking into support groups for black dads. He believes that due to his size, race, and attitude he is seen as an angry aggressive black man when all he wants to do is have someone listen to him without judgment and help. He stated laughing "I'm from New Jersey; what do expect"

His ex-partners have assessments under their names for him with Ashle; they are unfounded. Under Ashle Penn there is an open dependency case in Multnomah county. Neither Almira or [REDACTED] are participants in that dependency case any longer after their father was able to gain full custody of them. It is reported in a previous assessment 10.11.21 that Ashle does not seem to be making much progress toward mitigating the safety threats between herself and Barry Washington as there have been recent reports of violence between the two and continue to be dishonest with ODHS about their continued relationship and contact with one another. The girls report that when they see their mother that they have only seen Mr. Washington a couple times (No recent contact) and feel that their mother is doing what is needed to regain custody of her son, Feliciano Washington.

Also in the previous assessment there was concern that Ashle was exposing the girls to adult conversations about going to court and "picking sides" and "her master plan of how she's going to get them back". During this assessment the girls continued to talk about how their mother is going to get them back and that even though she does not have their brother she is going to get him back as well because his father is also not a good person.

Father has no familial supports in OR and is thinking of moving back to New Jersey where he has support. He reports having full custody of the children and reports trying to work with Ashle on visitation. He reports that the girls are caught in the middle and their mother is not making it better by talking to them about things that they don't need to know as a child. He reports that regardless of their relationship he is going to look into the parenting resources that ODHS gave him for better disciplinary and emotional support. The inconsistency of positive contact with their mother is making it hard on all of them.

ODHS history:

SAFETY THREAT IDENTIFICATION

Impending Danger Safety Threat:	A situation, attitudes, and/or behavior is such that one or both parents or caregivers lack parenting knowledge, skills, and motivation necessary to assure a child's safety.
Threat Identified:	No
Vulnerable Child(ren):
Narrative: Observable: The threshold not met. The children report that their father would "pop" them and yell at them when they are not listening. Children also report that they do push their father's buttons when arguing with him. Child reports sassiness, laughing, and talking back to father when he is lecturing them about their behavior. Out of control: The threshold not met. Although there are arguments between father and daughter there is also matters between Mr. Davis and Ms. Penn their mother. There is a history of the children being talked to regarding their parent's adult relationship and differences in parenting. There are significant parenting issues between the parents and father is doing what he can to alleviate issues. Vulnerable: The threshold has not been met. The children are vulnerable due to their age but also at this age they can properly protect and advocate for themselves. The children rely on their father for consistent sustenance and protection. Imminent: The threshold has not been met. The father was cooperative during the assessment and appears to be a loving and caring parent struggling to care for 2 girls alone. Severity: The threshold has not been met. There is no information that indicates that the child is at risk of severe harm.

CPS ASSESSMENT CONCLUSION

Assessment Allegations:

Alleged Victim	Alleged Perpetrator	AP Relationship to Victim	Allegation	Disposition	Karly's Law	Medical Neglect	Fatality
██████████	Alquan A. Davis	Father	Physical Abuse	Unfounded	☐	☐	☐
Almira A. Davis	Alquan A. Davis	Father	Mental Injury	Unfounded	☐	☐	☐
Almira A. Davis	Alquan A. Davis	Father	Physical Abuse	Unfounded	☐	☐	☐

Justification for the Disposition:

The allegation of PHYSICAL ABUSE to Almira and ██████████ by their father Alquan Davis is determined to be UNFOUNDED. There are significant concerns for the parents as their inability to effectively co-parent causes issues within the home for father as the children live with him full time. Although the incident took place and father physically disciplined his children it does not meet the criteria for abuse. Mr. Davis struggles with his immediate angry reaction to what he perceives as disrespect from the children. Almira has reported to push her father's buttons and "Sass" him knowing what gets him upset. Mr. Davis, has taken the resources provided to gain knowledge, understanding of their changing and challenging behaviors and his discipling techniques.

The allegation of MENTAL INJURY to Almira Davis by her father Alquan Davis is determined to be UNFOUNDED. There were no disclosures made to substantiate the evidence. Mr. Davis' behavior and communication with his daughter could have substantial impact on her psychological, emotional development in the future as they are struggling to effectively communicate and interact as father and daughter. He has been given resources and is utilizing what information he gathers.

Child Safety Decision:

Child	DOB	Child Safety Decision
██████████	██████████	Safe

Basis for Child Safety Decision:

At the conclusion of this assessment and completion of the safety analysis its determined the children are safe. The children are in the care of their father Alquan Davis. Father is utilizing resources given and working towards stability and positive supports.

Moderate to High Needs Service Determination:

Moderate to High Needs Present?	Yes	Services Offered?	Yes	Services Accepted?	Yes
Explain:	The moderate to high needs criteria is met. Almira and ██████████ exhibit challenging behaviors that father, Alquan, struggles to control and/or react appropriately to. Although there have been no serious negative impacts to children because of this, this could occur over the course of the next year without intervention or short-term targeted services. ODHS discussed services for the family but with Mr. Davis' work schedule he reported that he would have trouble being consistent.

OVERS

OVERS confirms Al-Quan and Ashle as mother and father of both children. No other children listed for either parent.

EXTENT OF ALLEGED ABUSE

The reporter expressed concern for 11 year old Al-Mira, as she voiced that on 12/15/22 that she felt fearful to return home after school. Al-Mira voiced that she was worried about getting "popped" by her father Al-Quan when she gets home, as prior to leaving for school there had been an argument between Al-Mira and Al-Quan over her clarinet - Al-Mira uses that clarinet for band practice and needs it for today, but Al-Quan was telling Al-Mira that she needed to give it to [REDACTED] for a concert that was happening that night. During the argument, Al-Quan had told Al-Mira that he is going to "pop her" when she gets home from school. Al-Mira reports dad uses his hand to slap her across the face, and also reports that he may spank her with a belt as well - a common punishment for her and her sister. Al-Mira noted that she has had red marks on her body from being popped and being spanked, though she was not observed to have such marks as of 12/15/22 to the reporter's observation.

Al-Mira also shared with the reporter that over the past two weeks, she and her [REDACTED] year old sister [REDACTED] have not been allowed to sleep in their beds/in their room, with Al-Quan forcing the girls to instead sleep on the floor with a blanket and pillow because they "are not cleaning the house good enough".

CIRCUMSTANCES OF ALLEGED ABUSE

The reporter advised that Al-Mira is frequently worried about Al-Quan being mad at her and worried how he will discipline her in response. Al-Mira notes that her sister [REDACTED] is treated similarly, though because Al-Mira tries to wriggle away/resist Al-

Quan when he is popping/spanking her she tends to be more prone to being harshly disciplined by her father. Al-Mira is believed to experience Al-Quan's form of discipline at home more often than [REDACTED] as [REDACTED] tends to take her father's direction without complaint more frequently compared to Al-Mira, who the reporter described as being more "hot headed and argumentative".

The reporter noted that Al-Mira has also been tired at school due to Al-Quan's forms of discipline, as it was reported that on at least one occasion Al-Quan has woken the children up in the middle of the night to make them clean their apartment more thoroughly if he feels that they did not do a "good enough job". Al-Mira is reported to be frequently thinking about what chores need to be done at home, as her and her sister are made to do many tasks by Al-Quan.

Outside of these concerns regarding Al-Quan's disciplinary practices, the reporter was unaware of any underlying issues for the family. The reporter was unaware of any mental health concerns for any of the family members, of any substance use/abuse or alcohol abuse concerns in the household, or of any violence the children could be witnessing outside of the alleged physical discipline/abuse occurring towards the children.

CHILD FUNCTIONING

The reporter was unaware of any specific delays, deficits, or disabilities for the children.

HISTORY REVIEW

Child welfare history review indicates that the last report on the family, dated 1/31/22 under the case name of Ashle Penn, was Closed At Screening regarding allegations of Neglect by Ashle towards [REDACTED] and Al-Mira, and Threat of Harm by an unknown perpetrator towards the two children. From Report ID#3566430 12/15/2022.

EXTENT OF ALLEGED ABUSE

Reporter states that Almira said this morning that she had "serious home stuff." Last night my dad hit my sister so hard she got a black eye. Almira, 11, said her father called it "a pop" but not a hit. Almira said that he had hit [REDACTED] with an open hand on her eye (reporter does not know which eye.) This happened in the family home and the father's girlfriend was over at the home as well. Almira said that last night [REDACTED] eye was bloodshot red, and she was crying and said that her eye was numb. This morning her eye appears dark underneath and above they eye as well but is no longer red like it was last night because her dad gave her eyedrops. Almira said her dad wanted she and her sister to go to bed but Almira was hungry and wanted a snack and ate a piece of bread and then she was thirsty so wanted water and her dad told her to dump it out which she did knowing there was juice in their room. Almira said her dad came into the room and saw the juice and told her to dump it out, but Almira wouldn't so her dad did. Reporter states [REDACTED] was saying things "oh dear" and "oh lord" and her dad told her to be quiet. [REDACTED] then said "what, I can't praise the lord?" and that is when dad hit [REDACTED]. Both girls then started to cry, and their dad started laughing at them. Reporter states they believe the girls then just went to bed. Almira said she feels scared that she might be next and that her dad is always throwing things at them. Reporter states reports have been made before about the dad "popping" or hitting the girls. Reporter does not know if the girls have had injuries previously and that both girls dress in long pants and long-sleeved shirts.

CPS Worker Boston will be responding this this today and will be calling the Reporter back.

CIRCUMSTANCES OF ALLEGED ABUSE

Reporter states in the past the dad used to hit the girls with a belt, but this was reported before. Reporter states they have not heard about the girlfriend before. Reporter believes there is a history between the parents that was problematic, but they appear to get along okay. Reporter states they have heard from Almira there are a lot of "ups and downs" between the parents. Reporter is not aware of any substance abuse or mental health concerns for either parent. Reporter does not have information about the family's customs, values or beliefs.

Reporter states the girls do not have any disabilities or delays. Almira has been having some conflict with peers and attitude with adults that have resulted with some suspensions from school. Dad has been encouraged to get Almira some counseling but does not know if the father has followed through.

Reporter states the father Alquan uses physical discipline. Reporter states the father has had the girls sleep on the floor as punishment for the house not being clean. Reporter states the girls did have blankets and pillows.

Contacted caseworker Boston Schuronda. Information gathered is included in narrative.

OVERS

Ashle & Alquan are parents to Al Mira, [REDACTED]
no additional children found for either parent

EXTENT OF ALLEGED ABUSE

Alquan hits the children, does not cook meals for them, and does not come home for days while communicating with the children via a camera in the living area. [REDACTED] reported fearing Alquan. [REDACTED] disclosed that Alquan uses the relationship with Ashle as a punishment, not allowing the children to visit with Ashle if they are not "good." Alquan brings [REDACTED] down, uses her weight against her, and does allow [REDACTED] to speak. Amiaya attempts to defend AlMira as AlMira rebels more so gets spanked more often. Alquan once attempted to hit AlMira with a belt, AlMira got away, so Alquan threatened to "get her later."

CIRCUMSTANCES OF ALLEGED ABUSE

Reporter learned on 2/10/2023 that Ashle does not "agree" with Alquan's "parenting style" as Alquan hits the children, does not cook for the children as he feels they are old enough to feed themselves, and is not home for days at a time. Alquan has a camera in the home's living space and communicates with the children via the camera.

Reporter spoke to [REDACTED] then, and learned that Alquan uses the children's relationship with Ashle as punishment, not allowing the children visitation with Ashle if they are not "good." [REDACTED] stated that Alquan is rarely home, and when he is home they either fight or do not talk at all. Alquan reportedly brings [REDACTED] down, talks negatively about her weight, and tells [REDACTED] to stay in her place because she is a child. [REDACTED] stated she tries to speak up for AlMira because Alquan spanks AlMira a lot because AlMira rebels more. [REDACTED] stated that she is scared of Alquan. Once, Alquan was going to hit AlMira with a belt but AlMira got away, so Alquan threatened that he would "get her later." Alquan last hit [REDACTED] in 1/2023 when he punched her in the eye (see report 3570704 pending 1/4/2023).

██████ reported a good relationship with and no concerns about Ashle.

Ashle reported that the children were previously removed from her due to a domestically violent relationship with an ex-significant other, and Ashle calls herself a survivor of domestic violence. Ashle reports she is attempting to gain custody of the children from AlQuan though the custodial relationship did not have to be her, just not AlQuan. Ashle reports herself as an "educated black woman" and knows the system is against that.

No other cultural considerations known to reporter for the family.

Screener attempted contact with caseworker/supervisor but it is afterhours on a Friday.

Hello,

I did not make it to the school to talk to little sister yesterday. I am going today.

No appointment for medical as supervisor advised to send referral to CARES NW and wait their recommendations.

Talked to father and he was very cooperative and stated that he did "pop" his daughter but his intention was to tap her in her mouth. He reports that immediately after he apologized and talk to her about his and her actions. Daughter stated that this before I talked to father.

There's an extensive ODHS history under the mother. She is currently going though legal proceedings to have child removed from her care due to continued contact with an abusive domestic partner. Father stated that mother is homeless and will come to the home when he is not home to be with the children. This is something that he has asked her not to do as the girls will allow her in the home regardless of his wishes. There are concerns of coaching and negative talk about father to the children by the mother. I will continue to update you.

I have a meeting with father 1/6 anywhere between 10AM-12PM before he has to go back to work as a school bus driver.

Thank you,

COMPREHENSIVE ASSESSMENT

Child Functioning

Participant: [REDACTED]	DOB: [REDACTED]
Child Functioning: [REDACTED] attends Poynter Middle School. She is not on an IEP or 504 plan. The school reports that her attendance is good but there are several times that she will be late. It is reported that these are the times that her mother will bring them to school. She reports that she wants to live with her maternal grandmother in Las Vegas. She states that she is fun and likes to take them to do things. She states that in Las Vegas her mother has lots of family and they love it there. [REDACTED] reports that her parents talk about their issues with her and her sister. She knows why they are not together and that their father reports their mother cheated on him with someone else. She says that her father told her that she does not need to worry about it as it is adult issues but she has heard a lot about everything. She reports that she is sarcastic, has a smart mouth and will talk back to her father knowing that he has given her warnings and told her she needed to stop. She understands why she shouldn't but she can't help it. She knows that sometimes he is already upset and her talking back makes it worse. No mental health or D/A concerns

Participant: Almira A. Davis	DOB: 06/23/2011
Child Functioning: Al-Mira attends West Union Elementary. She is not on an IEP or 504 plan. The school reports that her attendance is good but there are several times that she will be late. It is reported that these are the times that her mother will bring them to school. School reports that she will often come in hungry and tired. She reports not wanting to live with her father anymore as he is mean. She states that all he wants them to do is clean, stay home and do nothing. She reports that he is never home and never has time for them or money to do things. She feels that he is tired all the time and spends more time with his girlfriend/friends than them. She reports that when they get in trouble all he does is yell and "pop" them. She has been spanked on her legs and back. When asked what the spanking looked like, she reported that she was scared that it would hurt so she would move and cry. She reports that the spanking happened with his open hand on her bottom. She states that she and her mother have talked about their relationship and why it ended. Al-Mira states that her father was mean to her mother and her mother always had to stand up for herself. She did not report witnessing DV but hearing the parents fight often. She reports that her mother is more caring and will take them places and buy them things. No mental health or D/A concerns

Adult Functioning

Participant: Ashle A. Penn	DOB: 02/15/1988
Adult Functioning: An attempt was made to contact Ashle via telephone for interview but her current listed number was not operational. Ashle is reported to be houseless, couch surfing and/or sleeping at their Aunt Pumpkin's house. The children's school does not have regular contact with mother for the girls education. Father reports that he has sporadic contact with their mother and sometimes the girls will "misplace or lose their phones" after spending time with their mother. He states that during those times he was told by the girls recently that they leave phones with their mother so that she has a way to contact them. This irates the father as the phone is for them to contact him and anyone if they are unsafe. He reports that the reason for their separation was partially due to finding drugs in her purse (no time frame) and she had cheated on him several times from what he understands and also became pregnant. Later she had an abortion from her cheating. Previous assessments and ODHS OR-Kids show No ICWA for mother. OR-Kids case note shows that mother has supervised visits with her son Feliciano at a OHDS branch. She attendance to the visits have been sporadic or no shows. This case has been open in Multnomah County for her son with another man Mr. Berry Washington since 2020. Child is an Out of home plan and they are working on ICPC in WA. It is reported that On February of 2020, just after Feliciano's birthday, the case came to the attention of ODHS due to domestic violence perpetrated by Mr. Washington to Ms. Penn. The children including Ms. Penn's older daughters witnessed the violence.

Participant: Alquan A. Davis	DOB: 09/04/1978
Adult Functioning: Mr. Davis is employed as a School Bus Driver and he used to work for UPS but was injured on the job and needed knee surgery. He reports that he has sole custody of the children. He reports that in the home it is just him and his girls, although he does have a girlfriend but she has her own place. He reports that she has talked about moving state and he is considering moving with her or back with family in New Jersey. He states that he feels that the girls are getting older and need steady positive female role models and is sad that one of the women will not be his mother as she has passed. He reports that he was abused and beaten as a child but would not provide further detail. He states that he was in a 10 year relationship with Ashle and it was verbally and physically abusive. He reports having "battered man syndrome". No D/A or mental health concerns. Father reports No ICWA.

Parental Practices

Participant: Alquan A. Davis

DOB: 09/04/1978

Disciplinary Practices/Knowledge:

Alquan did not use any form of physical harm due to the physical abuse the girls have witnessed and been subjected to with their mother but he has resorted to "popping" them. He reports that popping them on the head is light and spanking is only done with his hand over the clothes, never hard enough to leave marks. This was confirmed by the girls.

He will usually take electronics away or send them to their room to calm down and then they talk it out.

The girls state that their father will yell and take away all electronics and recently when they talk back/don't listen he will spank them. Al-Mira states that she does not like when he spansks her and she will get hit on the legs, arms, and back. Her sister reports that Al-Mira will move and try to avoid her 'Poppin/whoopin" and that is why she gets hit in those places.

Mr. Davis states that Al-Mira does move when he tries to discipline her and that is why he only does it when absolutely necessary. This is after talking, taking away items, sending her to her room.

Parenting Practices/Knowledge:

Alquan states that being a single father is hard with two strong, smart and opinionated young women. He reports that they have had a hard time with their mother no longer being with them. He states that their mother while in the house was verbally and sometimes emotionally abusive towards him. He states that he had his own issues with yelling. He wants to move back to be close with his family so that he will have familial support. He fears that trying to provide has left them too much alone time and with the inconsistency and negative talk about him from their mother they are being pulled in two different directions. He has no problem with their mother wanting to being involved in their life he just want her to show them positive things and get herself help. Now to the girls he looks like he does not want them to have interaction with her or is trying to keep them from her.

He would like the girls to grow up and be good women. He wants them to have anything they want but also wants them to know right from wrong and have good values. He knows that they need a woman in their lives and he feels that more contact with his family will provide that.

He states that the girls want to be with their mother because she allows them more freedom and they see it as fun "amusement park fun" He reports that they can do whatever they want with their mother and she does not have rules or make them do anything. He states that is one of the reasons she is no longer allowed in the home as they will eat, change clothes, and leave things out; all over the place. He would then have to be the bad guy and tell the girls that they had to clean up their mess and it would be an argument and end with the girls mad at him because he is a "neat freak" It should be noted during the home walk though there were several items littered though out the floor, turned over clothes containers in the living room, children's room had clothes all over the floor and overflowing from the closet. The home was not in an order that most would consider "neat freak" clean.

Participant: Ashle A. Penn

DOB: 02/15/1988

Disciplinary Practices/Knowledge:

Ashle Penn is not playing an active parenting role, therefore does not discipline the children.

The girls state that when their father goes to work their mother will come over sometimes because she knows that the father is gone and can't return due to working. They state that they will eat breakfast, talk about things, and sometimes she will take them to school.

They report that both parents talk about each other in a negative manor sometimes. [REDACTED] states that their mother tells them that their father should not spank them or talk to them the way he used to talk to her. She reports talking back to her father because she feels that she has responses to his comments but they are not always said in a respectful tone or manner.

They report that when they are with their mother she allows them more freedom to do things and go places. Their father tries to keep more tabs on them and won't let them go to a lot of places.

Parenting Practices/Knowledge:

Ashle Penn is not playing an active parenting role. She continues to have weekly visits with her son at an ODHS branch or in the community.

Looking at ODHS history shows that mother has another son with a different man and they are going through the court system to regain custody. Her son is currently in out of home care with visits with his parents. It is reported that they have scheduled visits in Multnomah county. She has missed several visits and communication has been inconsistent.

Extent of the Child Abuse:

On 12.15.22 ORCAH received a call of concern regarding physical abuse to 11-year-old Al-Mira. It is reported that she felt fearful to return home after school. Al-Mira voiced that she was worried about getting "popped" by her father Al-Quan when she gets home, as prior to leaving for school there had been an argument between Al-Mira and Al-Quan over her clarinet - Al-Mira uses that clarinet for band practice and needs it for today, but Al-Quan was telling Al-Mira that she needed to give it to [REDACTED] for a concert that was happening that night. During the argument, Al-Quan had told Al-Mira that he is going to "pop her" when she gets home from school.

Al-Mira also shared with the reporter that over the past two weeks, she and her [REDACTED]-year-old sister [REDACTED] have not been allowed to sleep in their beds/in their room, with Al-Quan forcing the girls to instead sleep on the floor with a blanket and pillow because they "are not cleaning the house good enough".

12.20.22 FTF contact with [REDACTED] Almira, and Father Alquan Davis at the family home.

[REDACTED] reported that her father took their beds before Christmas. She states that it was not bad, she and her sister had a sleep over/camp out in their room for 2 weeks. She states that their father told them many times to clean their room or her would take their beds since they don't seem to respect their space.

When at the home CW noted that the girls room closet was overflowing with clothes on the floor and barely any clothes on hangers. There were clothes piled on each girl's bed and the surrounding floor along with several containers of opened food, and trash. Mr. Davis stated that their room will get like this and that is when he will get upset and take their beds. He states that they always complain about not having clothes or not being able to find anything when they need it. He laughed and stated that "they liked sleeping on the floor because all they had to do was hang up clothes and throw away trash and they would not do it."

Al-Mira stated that they had to sleep on the floor because their father wanted the room spotless. She reports that all they do is clean and not be able to see their mother. She reports that the other day she was mad at her sister because she had the clarinet for a concert but its hers and she had band practice. She states that her father was arguing with her over giving it to her sister. Since she was already upset with her sister, she didn't want to give it to her, but she didn't want to get punished or slapped because of it.

She reports that her father stated that he was going to "pop" her one when she gets home. When asked what popped looked like she states that he "mush them in the back of the head or spank them on their bottoms. Sister interjected that sometimes she will try and run away from the spanking and her dad will have to hold her down because she is trying to avoid it. Al-Mira states that they had talked to their mother before leaving for school that day and even her mother told her to give the instrument to her sister because they do share it.

Mr. Davis states that it was only about a week that the girls did not have their beds, but he works long hours and feels that they used their beds while he was at work and put them back before he came home. He doesn't like it, but he also understands that kids will be kids and try to get away with things when a parent is not around. He is the sole provider for his girls and cannot always be at the home.

He states that he did tell his daughter that he was going to pop her for not giving her sister the instrument and sassing him with an attitude. He told her to watch her mouth as she was going to far and it was making him angry. When he states that he will pop them what he means is a spanking or a pop in the mouth. Never hard enough to leave marks or bruises but enough to sting. [REDACTED] takes her punishment or discipline, but Al-Mira will not stand still and take her consequences. The last time he tried to spank her (open handed/over the clothes) she hid under the bed and crying. Previously she was sassing, telling him she was not going to do any chores and mumbling under her breath. He had told her repeatedly what would happen if she did not stop being disrespectful. Sister confirmed the incident and stated that she didn't make it any better by doing the same and she feels that her sister coped her actions.

He reports that this was part of the issues while he was with their mother. She would talk to him inappropriately and shout derogatory things at him in front of the children. She also would tell them that they don't need to listen to their father because he is not right all the time. Mr. Davis reports that it is hard to allow them to see their mother when he knows that she talks to them about him and adult things that they don't need to worry about.

He states that he has been talking about not allowing their mother into the home as she was disrespectful and would not get them to school on time or at all. He reports that since he is a school bus driver he must leave before the girls and sometimes their mother would come over and hang out with them or take them to school, but they would leave a mess and then complain about having to clean up. It was a continuous cycle, so he told the girls that their mother is not longer allowed in the home. Although they still do allow her in the home. This has caused more issues between the father and girls as they do not know or understand the reasons that they cannot be with her full time.

He reports on several occasions he has gotten calls from the school about the girls being late or not showing up. He has security cameras in the home as he leaves before the girls. The camera is by the door, facing the hall, doorway of girl's room and the kitchen. There is another camera in the corner of the Livingroom facing the front door, sliding glass door and kitchen. There are no cameras in the children's room or bathrooms. He has the cameras for their safety and so that he can visually see them.

Another call of concern was reported on 1.4.2023. Reporter states that Almira said this morning that she had "serious home stuff." Last night my dad hit my sister so hard she got a black eye. Almira, 11, said her father called it "a pop" but not a hit. Almira said that he had hit [REDACTED] with an open hand on her eye (reporter does not know which eye.) This happened in the family home and the father's girlfriend was over at the home as well. Almira said that last night [REDACTED] eye was bloodshot red, and she was crying and said that her eye was numb. This morning her eye appears dark underneath and above they eye as well but is no longer red like it was last night because her dad gave her eyedrops.

On 1/4/2023 Face to Face with Hillsboro Police Detective Kevin Moore who is supporting the current SRO as he was out today at Poynter Middle School. He states that he talked with [REDACTED] with the school counselor. He states that when he looked at her eye he could not confirm or deny that she had bruising to the eye. He reports that due to her dark complexion it was hard to determine. She stated that her eye did hurt when she touched it. Detective Moore stated that [REDACTED] acted out the incident.

His report shows that [REDACTED] stated that during the incident "she and Al Mira were cleaning the house as their chores. When Alquan got home, he was upset the house was not already cleaned. [REDACTED] said she and Al Mira were "goofing around" and talking "sass" to Alquan. He then got upset more and was yelling at both of them.

██████ told officer Moore, Alquan hit her in the right eye with his open right hand. ██████ said she was seeing black and white, as well as hearing a "ringing" in her ears. She said her eyes were watery and she began crying. ██████ also stated she continued talking back and mocking Alquan. They were arguing until approximately 0100 hours on 01/04/2023. ██████ said she then went to bed. During my interview later with ██████ I asked what happened before she went to bed and she stated that her father was remorseful and talked to her for a long time about his actions and her mouth. She reports "tuning out" as it was a long talk.

After talking with Detective Moore, (Report ID: 23-203) I talked with ██████ I introduced myself and explained what an ODHS CPS assessment was and what happens during our interview and of her right to end the interview if she wanted.

Child appeared to be appropriately dressed and healthy. There were no visible marks or bruises on the child's legs, back, arms, hands or face. I took pictures of her eye and talked about the need to go to the hospital. ██████ stated that she did not want to go to the hospital.

CARES NW referral and photos sent in for recommendations 1/5/23. Father reports having no family in the area and that children's mother is not a viable resource as she is undergoing legal proceeding after having her child removed from her care. This is a son she shares with another man who she reportedly continues to engage in a relationship that has significant domestic violence.

██████ reports that she was hit in the eye because she was sassing and back talking her father. She states that she understands why he was upset with her when he was trying to talk to her and her sister about their behavior and lack of doing what is expected. She states that they were asked to clean up after themselves. This did not happen, and he had given them warning and two extra hours to clean up.

She reports that when he came home with his girlfriend. She reports that they went into their room and their father asked why the room was not cleaned. She reports that her idea of clean and her fathers are not the same. She states that he will get mad at them if there are little things on the ground and everything else is picked up. She feels that he wants it spotless. She states that when he started giving them a lecture she began to mock and make sassy comments to questions. She was told that not to talk back but she continued to say things like "You are sooo right dad, are we done now" "I get it; we don't have to continue to talk about it" "Who cares if its dirty it's our room". ██████ says that she brought up his divorce from her stepmother and how he cried and was depressed.

Daughter reports that father was not yelling at them when he talked to them, but his voice was a little elevated. She states that they sat on the bed to continue talking as his lecture went on for a long time. When she talked back the next time, he "popped" her. They were sitting next to one another, so it was not that hard. She reports that she was shocked and surprised that he hit her, one because she stopped paying attention and two that he hit her in her eye. She cried and rubbed it and he immediately apologized, got her ice, eye drops and stated that he was trying to pop her in her mouth. At that time, she reports that they stopped talking about the cleaning and he started talking about how sorry he was and how her attitude and behavior can push people.

██████ states that his girlfriend tried to talk to him about the girls age, discipline, and their lack of motivation to do anything that is not considered lucrative for them. She states that her father is a good father and has never raised his hand to them before. She states that she is not scared or afraid to be with her father, but she would like him to not be such a clean freak all the time.

On 2.10.23 a new call of concern was called into the ORCAH. It is reported that AlQuan hits the children, does not cook meals for them, and does not come home for days while communicating with the children via a camera in the living area. ██████ reported fearing AlQuan. ██████ disclosed that AlQuan uses the relationship with Ashle as a punishment, not allowing the children to visit with Ashle if they are not "good." AlQuan brings ██████ down, uses her weight against her, and does allow ██████ to speak. Amiaya attempts to defend AlMira as AlMira rebels more so gets spanked more often. AlQuan once attempted to hit AlMira with a belt, AlMira got away, so AlQuan threatened to "get her later."

In an interview with the girls at their protective schools they reported a little differently.

Al-Mira reports that her father does not cook or provide hot meals for them. She states that she would rather live in Las Vegas with her grandmother. She states that she is the only person that is there for them all the time. She cooks for them and teaches them new things. She thinks that her mother should move back to Las Vegas as well so that they can all live together and she would have short visits with her father.

She reports that there is food at the home but she can't make it or eat it all the time. She would like them to eat as a family as her mother told her that is how it should be not the girls making their own food and eating alone. She reports that they used to do that but not anymore.

██████ reports that there is plenty of food at the home but there is never anyone to make it for them. She reports her father does provide food for them and that they have many options but its hard. She reports that her sister reported that Al-Mira is a picky eater and will refuse to eat sometimes. Her father works 2-3 jobs to support them all but she is unsure of what the other jobs are. She reports that he is a school bus driver and an Uber driver. She reports that he is busy but on the weekend he tires to do things with them.

CW noted that the home had an over abundance of food they can make and plenty of safe manageable cooking devices to use for cooking the food. Father stated that he has an issue with Al-Mira wanting different from what they have at home all the time. One minute she likes the food he brings home the next she hates it and does not want to eat. He reports that their mother will get them junk food or fast food when she is with them and they don't seem to understand that they don't need to go out for food as they have lots at home.

He previously reported that the cameras are for the safety of the children as he leaves before they do. He can communicate with them though it and will if he sees them doing things that they shouldn't or the door opens. He does not allow the mother to have unlimited access but cant control it fully as he works.

Alquan reports that he restricts how much access Ashle has to the children as there is a history of her talking to them about court and getting them back from him. He states that makes it hard because as the girls should they love their mother and listen to her. He used to argue with them about what was said but now he just lets them think what they want from their mother because it causes to many issues. They know that they are not allowed to leave the home with her unless they speak with him and she calls him to ask him. She has previously had the children disobey his rules and allow her in the home or leave with her without him knowing and when he would get home or call they would not answer. She would return the children late at night and without their phone stating they were lost.

Circumstances Surrounding the Child Abuse:

This is the 1st assessment under the father Alquan Davis. His ex-partners have assessments under their names. Under Ashle Penn there is an open dependency case in Multnomah county. Neither Almira or ██████ are participants in that dependency case any longer after their father was able to gain full custody of them. It is reported in a previous assessment 10.11.21 that Ashle does not seem to be making much progress toward mitigating the safety threats between herself and Barry Washington as there have been recent reports of violence between the two and continue to be dishonest with ODHS about their continued relationship and contact with one another. The girls report that when they see their mother that they have only seen Mr. Washington a couple times (No recent contact) and feel that their mother is doing what is needed to regain custody of her son, Feliciano Washington.

Also in the previous assessment there was concern that Ashle was exposing the girls to adult conversations about going to court and "picking sides" and "her master plan of how she's going to get them back". During this assessment the girls continued to talk about how their mother is going to get them back and that even though she does not have their brother she is going to get him back as well because his father is also not a good person.

Father has no familial supports in OR and is thinking of moving back to New Jersey where he has support. He reports having full custody of the children and reports trying to work with Ashle on visitation. He reports that the girls are caught in the middle and their mother is not making it better by talking to them about things that they don't need to know as a child. He reports that regardless of their relationship he is going to look into the parenting resources that ODHS gave him for better disciplinary and emotional support. The inconsistency of positive contact with their mother is making it hard on all of them.

ODHS history:

UNFOUNDED 10/19/2021 physical abuse by AlQuan to ██████ for choking her to the ground and hitting her on the head
UNFOUNDED 10/11/2021 physical abuse to AlMira, threat of harm to ██████ by AlQuan for hitting the children in the head and with a belt

CAS 10/7/2021 as AlMira was telling others AlQuan hit her without details

FOUNDED 1/27/2020 threat of harm by Ashle's significant other for assaulting Ashle in front of the children

FOUNDED 11/14/2019 threat of harm by Ashle and significant other for the assaults while Ashle refused to protect the children

FOUNDED 10/7/2019 threat of harm by Ashle's significant other due to assaulting Ashle in front of the children

FOUNDED 9/9/2019 threat of harm by Ashle's significant other due to assaulting Ashle in front of the children

UTD 2/22/2016 threat of harm by AlQuan due to domestic violence toward Ashle

CAS 3/10/2014 threat of harm by AlQuan due to domestic violence toward Ashle

SAFETY THREAT IDENTIFICATION

Impending Danger Safety Threat:	One or both parents' or caregivers' behavior is violent and/or they are acting (behaving) dangerously.
Threat Identified:	No
Vulnerable Child(ren):
Narrative: Observable: The threshold not met. The children report that their father would "pop" them and yell at them when they are not listening. Children were arguing over an instrument and were afraid that their father was going to punish them for arguing. Children also report that they do push their father's buttons when arguing with him. Child reports sassing, laughing, and talking back to father when he is lecturing them about their behavior. [REDACTED] was hit in the face by accident as she was talking back, and father went to tap her mouth, but she moved, and he accidentally hit her in the face. After the contact father talked to daughter about his intent and apologized to her. Out of control: The threshold not met. Although there are arguments between father and daughter there is also matters between Mr. Davis and Ms. Penn their mother. There is a history of the children being talked to regarding their parent's adult relationship and differences in parenting. There are significant parenting issues between the parents and father is doing what he can to alleviate issues. Vulnerable: The threshold has not been met. The children are vulnerable due to their age but also at this age they can properly protect and advocate for themselves. The children rely on their father for consistent sustenance and protection. Imminent: The threshold has not been met. The father was cooperative during the assessment and appears to be a loving and caring parent struggling to care for 2 girls alone. Severity: The threshold has not been met. There is no information that indicates that the child is at risk of severe harm.

Impending Danger Safety Threat:	A situation, attitudes, and/or behavior is such that one or both parents or caregivers lack parenting knowledge, skills, and motivation necessary to assure a child's safety.
Threat Identified:	No
Vulnerable Child(ren):
Narrative: Observable: The criteria has not been met. There is plenty of food for each child in the home. The access to the food is available and there are many appliances in the home that a child at that age can work successfully. Children appear to be caught in the middle of parent's custody issues which cause problems in the home as they are privilege to adult conversations and any legal proceedings. Amayia also reports that she does push their father's buttons when arguing with him. Child reports sassing, laughing, and talking back to father when he is lecturing them about their behavior. Out of control: The Criteria is not met. There is no ongoing pattern of violence in the home. There are concerns of parenting as mother is no longer in the home and has allegedly been telling the children that she will get them back and that they should not allow their father to talk to them any way he wants. Father has been talking with legal counsel to alleviate the concerns. Vulnerable: The threshold has not been met. The children are vulnerable due to their age but also at this age they can properly protect and advocate for themselves. The children rely on their father for consistent sustenance and protection. Imminent: The threshold has not been met. The father was cooperative during the assessment and appears to be a loving and caring parent struggling to care for 2 girls alone. Severity: The threshold has not been met. There is no information that indicates that the child is at risk of severe harm.

CPS ASSESSMENT CONCLUSION

Assessment Allegations:

Alleged Victim	Alleged Perpetrator	AP Relationship to Victim	Allegation	Disposition	Karly's Law	Medical Neglect	Fatality
[REDACTED]	Alquan A. Davis	Father	Mental Injury	Unfounded	☐	☐	☐
[REDACTED]	Alquan A. Davis	Father	Physical Abuse	Unfounded	☐	☐	☐
[REDACTED]	Alquan A. Davis	Father	Physical Abuse	Unfounded	☐	☐	☐
Almira A. Davis	Alquan A. Davis	Father	Physical Abuse	Unfounded	☐	☐	☐

Justification for the Disposition:

The allegation of PHYSICAL ABUSE to Amayia A. and Almria A. Davis by their father Alquan A. Davis is determined to be UNFOUNDED. There were no disclosures made or observable injuries regarding any physical abuse by the father. Police talked with the family have not taken further action at this time. Child do admit that there are times they push their father when he is already upset and that is when he uses spanking or Poppin them. Amayia reports that she sasses and laughs when her father is lecturing them on behavior and warns her of her attitude. She reports she says things to hurt his feeling and he will try to pop her in the mouth to stop her, but she will continue.

The allegation of PHYSICAL ABUSE to Amayia A. Davis by her father Alquan A. Davis is determined to be UNFOUNDED. There were no observations or disclosures during this assessment that indicated that the children were being neglected in any way. The children are healthy and well taken care of by the father. The father is no longer using physical discipline with the children as they move and/or try to get away from spanking "poppin" and has ended with him "poppin" them somewhere harmful by accident. Father was given ODHS supports for groups to gain knowledge and techniques to better manage discipline.

The allegation of MENTAL INJURY to Amayia A. Davis by her father Alquan A. Davis is determined to be UNFOUNDED. Based on the information gathered during this assessment from disclosures, observations, and collaterals, it is reasonable to believe that the treatment of [REDACTED] has not caused observable significant harm to the child. Father reports having full custody of the children and is having issues trying to co-parent with Mother Ashle. There is a history of children being guided in what to say. Interviews with school show that [REDACTED] has maintained educational goals and is succeeding. They do note that there are times she gets sad when talking about her father and going home. [REDACTED] has not sustained any long-term harm due to her and her father's mutual arguments and disrespectful communication.

Child Safety Decision:

Child	DOB	Child Safety Decision
[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	Safe

Basis for Child Safety Decision:

At the conclusion of this assessment safety threat #2 & #8 were considered. The children are safe in the care of their father. He has taken the resources provided by ODHS and is learning new techniques to discipline his children. Father is also looking into more formal custody and legal options as co-parenting is not going well. There are barriers to mother having access to the children while father works. Mother currently has an open ODHS case regarding her son who is in out of home care plan due to continued DV in a previous relationship and lack of follow through with mother in working towards reunification.

Moderate to High Needs Service Determination:

Moderate to High Needs Present?	Yes	Services Offered?	Yes	Services Accepted?	Yes
Explain: Father was given resources to gain knowledge and techniques over physical discipline. He was given information to Allies in Change, 211, Choices, and National parent Helpline. Police talked to father about going to the court house to insure he has all legal rights to his children before moving out of state.

SCREENING REPORT NARRATIVE

Extent of Alleged Abuse:

Reporter contacted the hotline with concerns for 14-year Almira Davis. Reporter stated that Almira's father Alquan Davis is being arrested for criminal mistreatment 1st degree and strangulation to Almira. Mr. Davis is being transported to the Washington County Jail. Reporter stated Almira is currently being looked at by medics who are determining if she needs to go to the hospital.

Reporter stated that Hillsboro Police are requesting ODHS assistance as Mr. Davis is being arrested and Almira stated that there is no one in the home to care for her.

Circumstances of Alleged Abuse:

Reporter learned on 9/06/25 mid-morning Alquan started "chipping away" and antagonizing his daughter Almira. Reporter believes this all started because of a tv. Reporter stated Almira walked out of the apartment to step away from her dad to give them each some space to "cool off."

Alquan followed Almira out into the parking lot of their apartment complex. Alquan was yelling at Almira and started chasing after her. Almira called 911 asking for help. Dispatch could hear Almira telling Alquan to stop that he is hurting her, Dispatch could hear Alquan yelling at Almira, then multiple 911 calls came into dispatch. One caller stated that an adult male is punching a female juvenile in the backseat of a car, another caller reported an adult male is dragging female juvenile out of the car, then another caller stated adult male is strangling juvenile female on the ground by the backdoor of a car. Reporter stated with the multiple calls that came in dispatchers could hear different things, one heard Almira say she "can't breathe" another could hear Alquan yelling at Almira, another initially heard Almira telling Alquan to leave her alone.

Reporter stated law enforcement is still on scene and investigating the incident. Reporter stated it is unknown how Almira got into the backseat of the car.

THIS FORM IS AVAILABLE IN ALTERNATIVE FORMAT UPON REQUEST

Reporter stated that they do know that Alquan was seen punching Almira and then started strangling her when she was on the ground. Reporter stated there is video footage from different angles that law enforcement is reviewing.

Reporter stated that Alquan is being arrested for criminal mistreatment and strangulation. Reporter stated Alquan was arrested a few months ago for criminal mistreatment for assaulting Almira. Reporter stated that there was a no contact order between Alquan and Almira but that was recently lifted, and Almira is back in the home. Then Alquan assaulted Almira again today.

Reporter learned as medics were evaluating Almira, she stated that she does not have anyone to care for her once her dad goes to jail. Reporter stated they are aware that ODHS is assessing allegations of physical abuse and that the family has an ODHS caseworker. Reporter stated they would like the assistance of ODHS to plan for Almira today.

12:23pm This screener contacted the Washington County ODHS after-hours phone and spoke with caseworker Nicole Bennett. Nicole was provided the reporter's contact information and a summary of what happened.

Nicole messaged this screener at 12:43pm stating that Almira is being transported to Randall's Children's Hospital via ambulance. Nicole noted that Almira's sister [REDACTED] A Davis lives with their mother in Portland and did not witness anything that happened today.

Child Vulnerabilities:

Almira is diagnosed with ADHD and depression.

CHILD WELFARE HISTORY

Child Welfare History Summary:

7/31/25-Pending for physical abuse to Almira by her mother Ashle Penn. Ashle allegedly hit Almira with a belt. Almira reportedly has marks from the belt.

History under Ashle Penn 798764-

3/04/25-The allegation of physical abuse of the child, Almira Davis, by father, Alquan Davis, is unfounded. Almira reported that she was being disrespectful to her dad while they were driving to school and he hit her mouth with the back of his hand. She did not have any injury or lasting pain. Alquan Davis, father, provided the same explanation. Poynter Middle School principal, Jeremy Corwin, did not observe any injuries to Almira's face. Hillsboro Police Department report number 53 2025-4730 dated 3/10/2025 indicates that father, Alquan, was driving Almira to school and she was just being disrespectful. He reached back with an open hand and swatted her cheek for cursing at him. She had no injuries. Conclusion: information only; refer to DA for review.

3/22/24- founded for physical abuse to Al-Mira by her father Alquan Davis. Al-Mira made disclosures that her father Al-Quan hit her with a belt across her legs to the point of injury. Al-Quan acknowledged hitting Al-Mira with a belt but reported hitting her 5-7 times and Al-Mira indicated he hit her 15-17 times. Al-Mira was able to provide pictures of her legs following this incident. In these photos, there are multiple striations across her shins that are consistent with markings from a belt. Al-Mira reported that it had hurt to walk following this incident and she reported ongoing bruising that was not visible due to the color of her skin but was still painful to the touch days after the incident. Al-Quan did not deny this incident occurring to ODHS, although he repeatedly denied physical discipline to LEA. In speaking with the school, they reported ongoing concerns for Al-Quan's temper and the disclosures that Al-Mira will make. There is a significant pattern of reports with concerns for physical abuse by Al-Quan and he has been educated by the agency about his use of physical discipline crossing the line into abuse. This dispositional finding is supported by the children's disclosures which were corroborated by photographs of the injuries and statements of concern by the child's mother.

SCREENING REPORT NARRATIVEExtent of Alleged Abuse:

On 5/27/2025 at 10:56 PM at 1605 SE Maple St in Hillsboro, Oregon Almira Davis [REDACTED] left her home without her father's permission. It is reported Almira's father, Alquan Davis, was following Almira after she left. It is reported Almira has a history of running away from home. It is reported Alquan has custody issues with his daughters and the children's mother, Ashle Penn. It is reported Alquan has primary custody of one of the children, Almira.

It is reported when law enforcement arrived Almira was only wearing socks but no shoes. Almira and Alquan were arguing over something that had happened at their residence but were not elaborating in front of law enforcement. Alquan made statements about their body-camera's being on, and Almira just needed to go home. They continued to argue that Almira was not being heard by Alquan, and he always takes her sister's side, [REDACTED] (15).

It is reported law enforcement told Almira multiple times she had no choice, and she needed to go with Alquan. Almira was told that if she did not, she would ultimately be placed in handcuffs to be taken home. Almira was told multiple times that law enforcement just wanted her to go home, and they did not want to place her in handcuffs. Almira made a statement on how she did not want to speak with law enforcement about the incident that had just occurred at her residence, where Alquan was there for. Shortly after this, Almira mentioned [REDACTED] had bitten her, pushed her, and pulled her hair. Alquan appeared to be annoyed when she had said this because of them being sisters, and law enforcements need to investigate an alleged domestic situation between sisters.

During the contact with Almira, her behavior would change multiple times, from being angry, crying, and yelling. It is reported Almira calmed down significantly once her father returned home. It is reported Almira just went through a difficult social situation recently that was affecting her. She was in her room with Alquan's laptop, using it. [REDACTED] came into the room and wanted the laptop for schoolwork. She did not believe she needed it for schoolwork. They got into a verbal argument over who wanted to use the laptop. During the argument, [REDACTED] was reported to be the first one to be physical, resulting in her getting pushed, bitten, and her hair pulled. Almira had two bite marks on both of her elbows. She refused to let law enforcement take any photos of the marks. It is reported Almira left her residence because of the incident. She mentioned how she was significantly unhappy at home and had conducted self-harm in the past with sharp objects. She did not want to go back home that night, and if she did, she would try to cut herself with knives at the residence to kill herself. She said she had been planning on killing herself around her birthday, which was in June (3 more calendar days till June). This was because she hated her life and the current issues with her family.

From all of the information available law enforcement believed that Almira was an immediate threat to herself. She was emotionally unpredictable; she made a plan to hurt herself, and it was near the date she had planned for suicide. Law enforcement placed Almira on a Police Officer Hold at 11:28 PM but did not place her into handcuffs. Law enforcement requested American Medical Response (AMR) to respond to the location to transport Almira to Kaiser Westside Medical Center for further medical evaluation. Alquan was notified of this information and returned to the scene with [REDACTED]

It is reported Amiaya said she had told Almira earlier in the day that she needed to use the laptop for schoolwork. She entered Almira's room tonight to get the laptop and wanted it for her schoolwork. They both got into a verbal argument over who wanted the laptop. She said Almira had pushed her first and would not give her any space during the argument. When it became physical between them, she had pushed Almira away from her multiple times. Two separate times, she had bitten

Almira because she was on top of her. She admitted to biting Almira on her elbows to get her off of her. She admitted she was bigger than Almira, and she was trying to create separation from Almira, but she would not leave her alone. It is reported during the physical incident, she was bitten, pushed, and her hair was pulled by Almira. Ultimately, they separated, and Almira left the residence. When speaking to [REDACTED] she appeared to be calm and articulate when providing her statement of events. She seemed to be worried about Almira's condition and her going to the hospital. It is unknown if their father, Alquan, was in the home when this incident occurred.

It is reported Almira and [REDACTED] both said each had been physical with the other first. Almira did have two distinct bite marks on each elbow when she showed them. Law enforcement did not see any bite marks on [REDACTED] when she showed where she was bitten by Almira. Almira was transported by AMR to Kaiser Westside for further medical treatment, and her family followed. There is no additional information regarding this incident. There is no information about the relationship dynamics between adults.

CHILD WELFARE HISTORY

Child Welfare History Summary:

This incident has not been previously reported or assessed.
 03/04/2025 Unfounded for physical abuse to Almira by her father, Alquan, when he hit her in the face with the back of his hand. She did not have any injury or lasting pain.
 03/22/2024 Founded for Neglect and Physical Abuse to Almira by her father, Alquan, Al-Mira made disclosures that her father Al-Quan hit her with a belt across her legs to the point of injury and causing Almira distress that she did not have access to a safe shelter and have to seek it independently from another source. This assessment was unable to be determined for Physical Abuse to [REDACTED] by Alquan and Mental Injury to both children by their father.

SCREENING REPORT NARRATIVE

Extent of Alleged Abuse:

Reporter indicated concern for Almira Davis (age 12) after her father, Alquan Davis shared that she is living with her mother, Ashle Penn at an unknown address in the Bethany/Beaverton area. The reporter indicated concern for Almira if she is with her mother because Almira's older sister, [REDACTED] moved in with her mom last year, and the reporter stated the school never received a school records request for [REDACTED] so it is assumed that she is not attending school. The reporter indicated concern that the father said her mom lives in the Bethany/Beaverton area and he did not provide an address for her. The reporter is not aware of her current location and expressed concern in not knowing.

Circumstances of Alleged Abuse:

It was reported that recently Almira and her father had a falling out, and on Wednesday night, 04/24/24, Almira said she didn't go home, and her father filed a missing report on her. The reporter stated that Almira is not at school today, and her father said that she is with her mother and shared that they needed a break. The reporter stated that Almira doesn't have a cell phone and when the reporter saw Almira last, she didn't have her father's cell #. The reporter indicated concern for Almira if she is with her mother because Almira's older sister, [REDACTED] moved in with her mom last year, and the reporter stated the school never received a school records request for [REDACTED] so it is assumed that she is not attending school. The reporter indicated concern that the father said her mom lives in the Bethany/Beaverton area and he did not provide an address for her. The reporter stated concerns due to an interaction at the beginning of the school year, when the parents got into an altercation, and the school had to call the police. The reporter stated Almira's mom was trying to leave with the children and her father was standing in front of her car. The reporter indicated Almira's mom has a suspended driver's license. The reporter stated that in August 2023, her mother looked like she was living in the car. The reporter is not aware of her current location and expressed concern in not knowing.

The reporter stated that something happened a week ago, the reporter thinks it was reported to ODHS, and indicated Almira's father was hitting Amira in the parking lot. The reporter stated that Almira's dad said something happened and DHS was called out. The reporter indicated Almira's mom has a toddler in her care. The reporter stated that Almira's speaks poorly of her mother and has said that her mother is a substance abuser. The reporter is not aware of any current use or behaviors related to alleged use. The reporter stated that Almira's mom called Amira's school yesterday and she yelled at the staff. The reporter explained that her father is the only one with educational rights, and the school refused to provide any information. The reporter stated, "the fact that her dad took her to her mom's and didn't call her school is out of the ordinary."

The reporter has heard that Amira is not eating. The reporter stated that Almira went to school yesterday, she slept in the counseling center at school, and then declined any food when it was offered to her. The reporter stated that Almira said she hasn't eaten, she doesn't have an appetite and she's nauseous all the time. The reporter indicated that Almira hasn't been eating her lunch at school either. The reporter indicated Almira's friend's parent said that Almira didn't want to eat or drink anything while she was at her house. The reporter stated that Almira's dad said she's had a stomach bug for over a week. The reporter stated that Almira said she spent 20 dollars on chocolate that she bought from a peer, and she thought it was an edible.

TEAMS message sent to caseworker, Emily Gonnuscio on 04/26/24 at 9:48am. The caseworker indicated there are no worries about her being with her mom. And her father has been told that if she returns to her father's home, there needs to be a safety plan, additionally, both parents have decided they're not willing to engage with their caseworker.

CHILD WELFARE HISTORY

Child Welfare History Summary:

SCREENING REPORT NARRATIVE

Extent of Alleged Abuse:

A witness described an incident where they had seen Al-Quan "beating Al-Mira" his 12-year-old daughter, in the parking lot of the apartment complex where the family resides and said the police were called and responded. The witness did not say when this happened, but the reporter believed it was recent, within the last few weeks. No injuries have been noticed on Al-Mira, but she has had a behavior change over the last two weeks where she has had spotty attendance, has been found crying at school and hiding out in the building. These are new behaviors that are not typical for her. The reporter believes that her mental health and emotional wellbeing has been impacted by this abuse.

There is concern that 14-year-old [REDACTED] is in hiding with her mother Ashle who is not allowed more than 2 hours of supervised contact with her children every week. Ashle was known to always be calling and showing up at the school trying to pick up her daughters and somehow was able to get [REDACTED] and disappear with her. This is concerning to the reporter as Ashle was described as unstable and violent. Ashle has refused to give contact information since this happened. Al-Quan has been seeking legal help to find them as he is the custodial parent.

Circumstances of Alleged Abuse:

A witness described an incident where they had seen Al-Quan "beating Al-Mira" in the parking lot of the apartment complex where the family resides. It was said he was hitting her with an open hand, but the reporter did not know what part of Al-Mira's body was being hit. The witness said the police were called when this happened and that they responded. The witness did not say when this happened, but the reporter believed it was recent, within the last few weeks. Nothing was known about why Alquan was hitting Al-Mira.

The witness did not say they saw injuries and the reporter stated they had never noticed any injuries on Al-Mira before. The reporter had never heard of any incidents like this happening before but noted that Al-Mira has recently shown a behavior change that might be related to her experience of this incident. Over the last two weeks, Al-Mira's attendance has been sporadic which is not typical for her, she has been extra tired at school, and has been seen crying and found hiding out in the building. The reporter clarified that Al-Mira was not hiding simply to skip class and play around as some students do but that she seemed to be hiding out of emotional overwhelm. When questioned about why she is hiding and upset Al-Mira refuses to talk about it. When she is found in this state she is brought to the quiet room in the office where she can calm down. She sometimes falls asleep and takes a nap when she is in the quiet room. All of these behaviors are new and not typical of Al-Mira. The reporter believes that this incident has had a huge impact on Al-Mira's mental health and emotional wellbeing.

There are also concerns for [REDACTED] as her mother Ashle who is not supposed to have more than 2 hours a week of supervised visitation was able to pick her up from school one day and has since been keeping her and hiding her from the school and Al-Quan who has full custody. This is concerning because of Ashle's past behavior which the reporter described as unstable and violent. Ashle reportedly changed her phone number, moved to a new residence and has refused to give out her new information. The school had to unenroll [REDACTED] after 10 consecutive days of absence. DHS workers came to the school to inquire about the situation with [REDACTED] after these things occurred. Nothing further was known about the situation.

There is evidence of domestic violence and power and control dynamics in the relationship between Al-Quan and Ashle. In late August of 2023 on back-to-school night the family attended and after the program there was an incident in the parking lot where Ashle attempted to run over Al-Quan with her vehicle while her two daughters were in the car with her. The school had to call the police who responded and diffused the situation. Ashle was said to be constantly calling or showing up at the school trying to get the children even when she knew it was not allowed and eventually was able to get [REDACTED] and take her away to an unknown location. Al-Quan has been trying to get legal help to find [REDACTED] and Ashle.

Nothing was known about substance use or mental health for the parents or cultural considerations for the family.

Since there is an open case #1007213 caseworker Emily Gonnuscio and supervisor Heather Kitto were contacted via IM and notified by email. Emily responded and said, "That sounds similar to the assessment prior to mine, I would not be shocked though if it's happened again." The screener reviewed history and found a similar incident reported about a year ago on 5/18/23 which stated that "AL-Mira reportedly disclosed to a neighbor that her father, Alquan has "beat her with a belt, slapped her in the face, pushed her down, and dragged her across the parking lot." Although similar this report does not appear to be the same as there was no mention of LEA response or of "beating" being witnessed in the parking lot. Emily added that the police responded to other incidents as well and that Al-Quan has stopped answering the door and is being resistant to DHS contact. When asked about the allegation that Ashle is hiding [REDACTED] Emily said, "Both parents said they were unwilling to make either child be somewhere they didn't want to be. [REDACTED] has chosen to live with mom and Al-Mira has chosen to live with dad."

Child Vulnerabilities:

There were no known specific child vulnerabilities for either of the children.

CHILD WELFARE HISTORY

Child Welfare History Summary:

Per child welfare history review these concerns have not been reported or assessed.

There is a report #3727696 from 3/22/24 assigned and pending for mental injury, neglect, and physical abuse of [REDACTED] by Al-Quan which states, "Approximately 1 year ago at Alquan's residence, [REDACTED] was cleaning her room and Alquan was upset because she wasn't cleaning her room "the way he wanted" (not known what this looked like). Alquan hit [REDACTED] with a plastic hanger repeatedly until the hanger broke. No marks, bruises, or injuries were reported. Impact to the child is not known. In another incident, believed to have occurred approximately 1 year ago (but after the prior incident). [REDACTED] was seated on the toilet naked from the waist down. Alquan entered the bathroom and asked her if she had worn his socks. [REDACTED] said she hadn't worn his socks. Alquan slapped her across the face and then asked her if she had worn his socks. [REDACTED] said she hadn't worn his socks. Alquan slapped her across the face and then asked her if she had worn his socks. This cycle repeated 3 to 4 times until [REDACTED] said she had worn his socks. Reporter believes [REDACTED] said she wore the socks only to get Alquan to stop slapping her. After she said she wore his socks, Alquan slapped her several more times. It is reported he slapped her 7 times altogether. The following day, [REDACTED] eye was still sore from this. Amira and [REDACTED] said Alquan regularly walks in on them while they are in the bathroom, and he will physically discipline them even if they are seated on the toilet. Amira and [REDACTED] said this makes them uncomfortable."

There is a report #3726396 from 3/22/25 assigned and pending for mental injury, neglect, and physical abuse of Al-Mira by Al-Quan which states, "Concerns for child, Almira Davis(12), by father, Alquan Davis. According to the reporter, on 03/21/2024 Alquan came to pick up Almira and was demanding to see Almiras tablet. Alquan looked into her history and saw that Almira was emailing her mother. Alquan began to yell at Almira stating, "who are you going to live with me or your mom". Alquan demanded Almira to figure where you want to go. Reporter shared Alquan later showed up with Almira suitcase and said, "if you can't get ahold of your mom that is not my problem". Reporter shared staff had to call law enforcement due to Alquan's behavior. Reporter shared that in the morning of 03/21/2024 Almira disclosed she was "beat by her dad with a belt" due being late for school. Almira reported she had injuries from this. It was reported when LEA responded there was no observed injuries on Almira, however the incident had happened earlier that morning."

There is a report #3621126 from 5/19/23 disposed as Unfounded which states, "Concerns were reported regarding physical abuse to Al-Mira and [REDACTED] by their father, Alquan Davis. The last known incident occurred on 5/18/23 which resulted in a road-rash on Al-Mira's knee caused by being dragged across a parking lot by her father."

SCREENING REPORT NARRATIVE

Extent of Alleged Abuse:

The reporter has concerns about Al-Mira. She appeared asleep but was crying. She said she doesn't want to be taken away from her dad. Her dad was hitting her in the past when she attended the elementary school. It's reported Al-Mira was in the car with her father and he was hitting her. She then ran to a friend's house. Al-Mira went home because she missed the school bus. She went back home to go to sleep. Al-Quan thought Al-Mira was hiding in the closet and began hitting her in the legs. Al-Mira described it as a "beating". It's unknown if an object was used or if he used his hands or fists. It's unknown how long this took place, but she was able to make it to school late. It's unknown who transported her. The previous time this happened Al-Mira went into foster care, and she does not want to see her dad in pain. She doesn't want to leave her father and does not want to be around stepdad.

Circumstances of Alleged Abuse:

She arrived at school late, but it's unknown who transported her. The previous time this happened Al-Mira reportedly went into foster care, and she does not want to see her dad in pain. She doesn't want to leave her father and does not want to be around stepdad. It's reported Ashley is never home and she is expected to babysit her young brother.

Al-Mira is described as a bright girl. She was recently seen laying down with her hood on with a mask. She is a sharp girl. She loves social interaction with friends and is good with mathematics.

Al-Mira has an older sister and younger brother reside with her mother and stepfather. It's unknown if the family has beliefs that may impacted the safety of the children. Not much is known about Al-Quan. Ashley is nice but has history of substance misuse.

Al-Mira will see a counselor when she has a tough time manager.

The Davis family has been known for about two years. There have been custody battles between her parents, and she misses her parents being. It's unknown how long her parents have been separated. The parents argue and fight a lot when they are together. Mom would come to the school with her older sister because her dad was hitting her as well.

The reporter is unaware if things will worsen if she goes home. Both children are hit by Al-Quan.

The reporter states no information was known about how Al-Mira is disciplined, and no information is known about why she would need to be disciplined.

SCREENING REPORT NARRATIVE

Extent of Alleged Abuse:

Almira said she found a bag with blue pills underneath her mother's car seat. Her mother told her that "yeah, this is my stuff." Almira was upset that her mother has pills in her car. Almira did not know what kind of pills they were. Reporter states that Almira said that her mother told her and her sister that if they stayed with her, they could help her to take care of their brother Feliciano because "that's what family does." Reporter is concerned that the mother just got Feliciano back from CPS and has not come up with a plan to provide care for Feliciano. Reporter states [REDACTED] has missed the first week of school because her mother refused to bring her back home to her father's house and she had [REDACTED] stay home to watch Feliciano while their mother Ashle was out. [REDACTED] did manage to get to school today but Ashle was at school early and managed to intercept [REDACTED] before her father got there to pick her up. [REDACTED] still is at her mother's house. Reporter states the girls love their little brother but also need to complete their schoolwork. Reporter has not been able to talk to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] is ignoring her sister Almira at school and will not look at her or talk to her. Reporter believes Ashle is saying unkind things about Almira "deserting the family." Reporter states Almira is sad and hurt that her sister is not even talking to her.

Circumstances of Alleged Abuse:

Reporter states Almira and [REDACTED] were with their grandmother on June 18, 2023. The girl's mother went to the father's home when the father was sleeping, and the girls left with her. The mother has had the girls until about 3 weeks ago when the mother and Almira got into a disagreement and Almira walking to dad's home, but Ashle picked her up and drove her the rest of the way to her father's house. Alquan discovered Almira was in the home when he got home from work. Almira disclosed that she was already trying to come home, and her mother wouldn't let her. Almira said she and her sister and mother were told by Ashle's worker regarding her son Feliciano, that the girls were able to make a decision where they live when they turned 13. Almira said she hadn't wanted to stay with her mom, but the father is not sure if this is true. Almira said she and her sister were told by their mom they could stay with her and help her watch Feliciano.

Reporter states Alquan and Ashle had a very violent relationship. Ashle was putting holes in the wall and was violent toward Alquan. Reporter states Alquan and Ashle smoked weed but Ashle was using coke and drinking. Reporter states the couple separated in 2015. Reporter states Alquan has been getting counseling and sitting with his own kids regarding their counseling session. Ashle has some mental health issues and was supposed to have counseling but does not know if Ashle has ever done that. Ashle has not been in rehab before to Reporter's knowledge. Reporter states the family is not religious, but they do believe that family is the biggest thing.

Reporter states the girls have no delays or disabilities and Almira may have some anger management issues.

Contacted caseworker Mursal Ali. Information gathered is included in narrative below.

Mursal acknowledged the information in this report but states they do not have interactions with the girls although they have seen them at their mother's home. Mursal stated that Alquan has full custody of the girls.

SCREENING REPORT NARRATIVE

Extent of Alleged Abuse:

On September 8th, 2023 there were reported concerns that mother, Ashle Penn took [REDACTED] from a school event last week on August 30th and has not returned her to her father, Alquan Davis who has full custody. [REDACTED] has not been at school and Alquan does not know where she is at. There are concerns that Ashle is not safe and might not be able to meet [REDACTED] needs.

Circumstances of Alleged Abuse:

Last week on August 30th at a back to school night Alquan was trying to block Ashle from leaving because he was trying to get [REDACTED] back from her. Ashle was trying to run over Alquan. It was reported that police were called to the school due to this incident. No one was arrested and there are no pending charges from this incident. Ashle took [REDACTED] Alquan has full custody of the children. There are concerns that there is a lot of past history regarding abuse and neglect by the parents. It was reported that Ashle is using substances and alcohol. It was reported her car was full of things. The reporter felt she might be residing out of her car but was not for sure. It is reported that Ashle has no license and no car insurance. It is reported [REDACTED] has not gone to school and Alquan does not know where she is at and cannot get ahold of Ashle. The reporter is concerned about the safety of the child in mother's care and where [REDACTED] is at. It is reported that Alquan will be contacting local police soon to discuss these concerns.

The reporter had no additional information regarding child functioning for the children. The reporter had no additional information regarding adult functioning, parenting practices, and disciplinary practices. Concerns that mother uses substances and alcohol. Mother was incarcerated for drug possession and usage. Father has been drinking alcohol and gets angry at times. The reporter had no additional information about substance abuse and alcohol abuse. The reporter had no information about domestic violence or power and control. The reporter had no information about cultural considerations for the family.

SCREENING REPORT NARRATIVE

Extent of Alleged Abuse:

Reporter indicates that police dispatched to Poynter Middle School at 08.30.23 at 07:15pm as father, Alquan Davis called police to report that mother, Ashle Penn was trying to take his children. Alquan advised that he has full custody of the children. A second call to dispatch came through advising that Alquan was blocking Ashle with his car to prevent her from leaving the school.

Police arrived and contacted Alquan. He said that two to three weeks ago, Ashle came to his home and picked up the children while he was sleeping. He told the children that it was ok since they wanted to see their mother. Ashle was supposed to have returned the children since school was starting. Today at parent/ teacher greeting event, Alquan attempted to pick up the children, but Ashle arrived earlier than him and tried to take the children. Alquan said that he confronted Ashle and was verbally arguing with her about the children. Eventually one of the children got into his car prior to police arriving.

Ashle advised that Alquan has full custody, but they had a verbal agreement to allow her to have custody of the children during summer. It was noted that Ashle's driver's license was suspended.

Ashle was advised by police that she may be in contempt of the courts due to violating the custody agreement, but police would not forcibly remove the children from her. Ashle was advised that she would need to pursue changes in the custody agreement through the courts.

Police cleared the scene.

SCREENING REPORT NARRATIVE

Extent of Alleged Abuse:

On Saturday morning 7/27/2023 around 8 am when the father was sleeping, Almira, 12, and [REDACTED] Davis was at home. Reporter states the girl's mother Ashle showed up to the door and told the girls to go with her to go shopping. Reporter states the girls came and woke their father and asked if they could go shopping with their mother, but their father told them no and fell back to sleep. When the father woke up again at 11:30 am and found the girls not home. Reporter states the father has full custody and the mother is only allowed visitation if she follows his guidelines, which she has not done. Reporter states Alquan called Ashle who answered the phone and told Alquan that she would not bring them and would not tell Alquan where they were staying. Reporter states this is not the first time Ashle has done this and has at times said she would take them to school the next day but does not even though she does not.

Reporter states Ashle is still with Feliciano's father Barry Washington who has a restraining order and is not to be around Almira and [REDACTED] Reporter state Barry threw a cell phone and hit one of the girls. Per E-Court the Protective Order issues 05/10/2021 has been closed. There is a total of 5 separated Protective Orders that have been issued and closed since 11/18/2019 regarding Barry and Ashle.

Per Accurint, Ashle and Barry are living at separate addresses. Ashle is listed as living at 17548 NW Springville Road, Portland, OR 97229. This address was confirmed with the current Permanency Worker Mursal Ali.

Circumstances of Alleged Abuse:

Reporter states Ashle and Alquan have not been together since 2015. In 2019 the girls were placed in the father's care and in 2021 the court gave Alquan full custody. Ashle has another son Feliciano Washington, and he is currently in the custody of DHS but placed with his mother Reporter states there has always been concerned and Reporter states Cocaine and a crack or meth pipe was found in Ashle's car about a year ago. Reporter states they know she is still using. Reporter states her last boyfriend was her supplier. Reporter states Ashle needs counseling and Alquan is concerned she is not in her "right state of mind." Reporter states that because Ashle believes because they are girls, she should have them.

Child Vulnerabilities:

Reporter states Amira and [REDACTED] do not have any delays or disabilities.

Contacted caseworker Mursal Ali. Information gathered is included in narrative below.

Mursal states Feliciano is currently in the physical care of his mother on a Reunification plan. Mursal does not cite any concerns about the Ashle's care of Feliciano.

SCREENING REPORT NARRATIVE

Extent of Alleged Abuse:

Concerns reported for children Amiaya Davis and Almira Davis. It was reported that the children's father, Alquan Davis threatened to take his children to juvenile detention because they let their mother, Ashle Penn into his home recently. No reported harm, injuries or impact to the children. No reported criminal activity or concerns for Ashle.

Circumstances of Alleged Abuse:

On 4/20/2023 child [REDACTED] wanted to call a grandmother because her father, Alquan was threatening to take [REDACTED] and her little sister, Almira to juvenile detention. Reporter was told that the children let their mother, Ashle inside the home with their little half-brother recently. Reporter explained that [REDACTED] father found out and told [REDACTED] that she wasn't allowed to do this, so he has threatened to take them to juvenile detention. [REDACTED] also mentioned that her mother wants to take the children to Las Vegas soon, so [REDACTED] wanted to call her grandmother to see if this is really happening. [REDACTED] mentioned that she thinks maybe both of her parents are bluffing, however. Reporter was not certain of the date of when this happened, but believes it was recent. Reporter was told that a little half-brother was there, and [REDACTED] mother got him out of the car. Reporter has no information about this brother and had no information to suggest that anyone was harmed/injured during this incident.

Reporter explained that this sounded concerning, because as far as reporter knew, Alquan has full custody, but Ashle is allowed contact and does see the girls often. Reporter was asked and was not told of anything illegal or criminal happening, and reporter is not aware of any no contact order etc that would suggest there would be a legal issue with allowing Ashle inside of the home. Reporter added that according to paperwork, Alquan wants a courtesy heads up if there is any contact or issues with Ashle through the school. Reporter added that they were also told that the mother, Ashle just got her son back. Reporter has no further information about this and doesn't know what this means exactly or why.

Abuse concerns by parents: Nothing mentioned by [REDACTED] Reporter added that everyone talks about how her father is strict and her mother might have a "looser" parenting style.

Impact: [REDACTED] said that her father threatening juvenile detention upset her, nothing else known.

No concerns with [REDACTED] appearance today, 4/20/2023 when she was seen, no injuries etc.

Reporter was asked and stated that the school has not talked with [REDACTED] father about this at the time of this call.

Special needs/delays: Nothing known for [REDACTED] she is forgetful per reporter.

Other concerns: Reporter added that the father has forced [REDACTED] to go to school when she was stuffy. [REDACTED] seems to want to be with her mother and gets frustrated by her father.

Parenting/functioning concerns: Nothing else known about the parents that hasn't been mentioned already.

Violence/domestic violence concerns: No known concerns of violence in the home. No known power/control dynamics between adults.

Family dynamic/culture: Father has full custody, [REDACTED] recently started to see her mother more often. Father is usually positive about his children when he talks about them, but reporter keeps hearing that he is strict. Reporter had nothing else to add at this time.

CHILD WELFARE HISTORY

Child Welfare History Summary:

Current open case/pending UNFOUNDED dispositions. This specific incident has not been reported, however some of the information was already known by the worker.

*Please note; at the time of closing this report, case Alquan Davis is now closed with no current worker.

*Alquan Davis, 1007213. Worker Schuronda Boston, supervisor Sean Giles

*Ashle Penn, 798764. Worker Mursal Ali, supervisor Angela Mansfield. Secondary worker Maritsa Knight, supervisor Angela Mansfield.

Screener made contact with worker Shuronda and provided them with the information in this report. Screener learned that most of this information was known by the worker. There are visit/custody conflicts between parents Ashle and Alquan. Ashle recently had her younger child placed back in her home, there were concerns of domestic violence between Ashle and a different partner. Worker has no major concerns with this incident or Ashle, Alquan doesn't want her around his home and has cameras set up so he was able to see when she came by.

*Information emailed to workers/supervisor for case Ashle Penn on 4/21/2023

History under Ashle Penn:

11/14/2019: The allegations of Threat of Harm by Barry Sanders to Almira Davis, [REDACTED] and Feliciano Washington will be coded as FOUNDED. Barry Sanders has assaulted Ashle Penn multiple times in front of these children and on one occasion injured Almira Davis as she and [REDACTED] attempted to intervene to protect their mother. Mr. Sanders has been arrested twice for assaulting Ashle Penn. Mr. Sanders is known to also be storing a weapon in the kitchen of the house that he shared with these children. DHS has received 11 calls reporting that violence has occurred and the children have been reporting that they heard arguing and violence on a daily basis. It is clear that a pattern of Domestic Violence has been occurring in front of the children which was being perpetrated by Barry Sanders therefore it is appropriate to code this allegation as FOUNDED.

The allegations of Threat of Harm by Ashle Penn to Almira Davis, [REDACTED] and Feliciano Washington will be coded as FOUNDED. Ashle Penn repeatedly failed to cooperate with any measures that would have been protective of her children related to the violence that was occurring. Ashle Penn filed for restraining orders and would then have those restraining orders dismissed. Ashle Penn refused to cooperate with the district attorney's office when charges were filed against Mr. Sanders for strangulation. Ashle's children have reported fear that their mother will be killed. They have reported that they would tell their mom to not open the door, but that she would continue to open the door. Ashle failed to recognize how the violence that was occurring was also victimizing her children and she failed to accept any help to protect her children. It is appropriate to code this allegation as FOUNDED due to the significant pattern of domestic violence that was occurring in the home which Ashle refused to protect her children from.
