Dear PENN ASHLE:

We are pleased to let you know that the results of the dispute you recently filed with Equifax are complete. Here are a few things to know about the process:

Were changes made to my credit report and what actions were taken?

Please see the following page(s) for more detailed information on your specific results.

If we were able to make changes to your credit report based on the information you provided, we have done so. Otherwise, we contacted the company reporting the information to Equifax for them to investigate your dispute.

In this situation:

- We request that the reporting company verify the accuracy of the information you disputed;
- We provide them with any relevant information and supporting documentation you provided us with the dispute to consider as part of the investigation; and
- We request that they send Equifax a response to your dispute and update their records and systems, as necessary.

If your dispute involves a public record item, Equifax contacts a third party vendor to obtain the most recent status of the public record.

How do I know that all of this is happening?

When the reporting company replies to us, they certify that they have followed Equifax's instructions and the law; considered all information and documentation provided; and updated your information, as necessary.

What should I do if I do not agree with the results of the investigation?

You have a few options:

- You may add a statement of up to 100 words to your credit report. If you provide a consumer statement that contains medical information related to services provided or medical procedures, then you expressly consent to including this information in every credit report we issue about you.

- You may contact the company that reports the information to us and dispute it directly with them. If you would like written proof about your accounts (such as the original agreement), please contact your creditors directly.
- You may provide us additional information or documents (such as an identity theft report or a letter from the reporting company) about your dispute to help us resolve it by visiting our website <https://equifax.com/personal/disputes>. You may also mail your documents to P.O. Box 740256, Atlanta, GA 30374-0256 or contact us by calling us at (888) EQUIFAX, (888) 378-4329.
- You may contact the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau or your State Attorney General's office about your issue or complaint against Equifax or the company reporting the information.

What else should I know?

If there has been a change to your credit report based on your dispute, or if you add a consumer statement, you may request that Equifax send an updated report to companies who received your credit report within the last two years for employment purposes, or within the last six months for any other purpose (the past 12 months for residents of California, Colorado, Maryland, New York and New Jersey residents).

Also, if you are interested, you may request a description of how the reinvestigation was conducted along with the business name, address and telephone number (if reasonably available) of the furnisher of your disputed information.

For frequently asked questions about your credit report and the dispute process, please visit Equifax at <https://help.equifax.com/>.

As always, we thank you for contacting Equifax and the results of your dispute are on the pages following this letter.

How should I read my dispute results?

If you have any additional questions regarding the information provided to Equifax by the source of any information, please contact the source of that information directly. You may contact Equifax regarding the specific information contained in this letter within the next 60 days by visiting us at www.equifax.com/personal/disputes.

Thank you for giving Equifax the opportunity to serve you.

Notice to Consumers

You may request a description of the procedure used to determine the accuracy and completeness of the information, including the business name and address of the furnisher of information contacted, and if reasonably available the telephone number.

If the reinvestigation does not resolve your dispute, you have the right to add a statement to your credit file disputing the accuracy or completeness of the information; the statement should be brief and may be limited to not more than one hundred words (two hundred words for Maine residents) explaining the nature of your dispute.

If the reinvestigation results in the deletion of disputed information, or you submit a statement in accordance with the preceding paragraph, you have the right to request that we send your revised credit file to any company specifically designated by you that received your credit report in the past six months (twelve months for California, Colorado, Maryland, New Jersey and New York residents) for any purpose or in the past two years for employment purposes.

Inquiries that do not impact your credit rating/score.

These are inquiries, for example, from companies making promotional offers of credit, periodic account reviews by an existing creditor or your own requests to check your credit file. They may remain on your file for up to 2 years.

Company Information - Prefix Descriptions:

AM OR AR	- Inquiries with these prefixes indicate a periodic review of your credit history by one of your creditors.
CAR RENT	- Inquiries with this prefix are from rental car companies regarding debit card payment acceptance.
COLLECT	- Inquiries with this prefix are for collection purposes and may be from the lender, a party collecting on the lender's behalf, or a company that purchased your debt.
CONS RPT	- Inquiries with this prefix are from your requests for your own report or requests you have authorized as part of a service or product.
DDA	- Inquiries with this prefix relate to a review of your consumer report for the opening of a deposit account.
EMPL OR ND EMPL	- Inquiries with this prefix indicate an employment inquiry.
EQUIFAX OR EFX	- Inquiries with these prefixes indicate Equifax's activity in response to your contact with us for a copy or your credit file or a research request.
FIN PLAN	- Inquiries with this prefix relate to a review of your consumer report for financial counseling or planning.
INS	- Inquiries with this prefix are from insurance companies regarding a review of your consumer report for insurance underwriting purposes.
MEDICAL	- Inquiries with this prefix are from medical service providers.
ND	- Inquiries with this prefix are general inquiries that do not display to creditor grantors.
ND MR	- Inquiries with this prefix indicate the reissue of a mortgage credit report containing information from your Equifax credit file to another company in connection with a mortgage loan.
NON APPL	- Inquiries with this prefix are used when companies review the consumer report of a spouse who is not a co-applicant.
PR	- Inquiries with this prefix indicate that a creditor reviewed your account as part of a portfolio they are purchasing.
PREQAUTO	- Inquiries with this prefix are used when you have provided consent to be prequalified for an auto loan or lease.
PREQCARD	- Inquiries with this prefix are used when you have provided consent to be prequalified for a credit card.
PREQCOMM	- Inquiries with this prefix are used when you have provided consent to be prequalified for telecommunications products or services.
PREQHE	- Inquiries with this prefix are used when you have provided consent to be prequalified for a home equity loan or line of credit.
PREQIL	- Inquiries with this prefix are used when you have provided consent to be prequalified for an installment loan other than auto, mortgage or home equity.
PREQINS	- Inquiries with this prefix are used when you have provided consent to be prequalified for an insurance quote.
